DESPITE more than 3,000 residents signing a petition opposing any changes to car parking charges in the village – Warrington Borough Council has gone ahead with the changes!

There is no longer free parking for an hour – this has been reduced to 15 minutes – and you still need to get a ticket!

This "concession" was brought in to allow people to drop their children off at day nursery.

There is not a lot you can do in 15 minutes.

Warrington Borough Council seem to think these changes are going to help raise additional funds.

Let's hope they are proved wrong and revert to the free hour.

Meanwhile another petition, this time containing over 4,000 names was presented to the council, opposing any proposed closure of Lymm library.

While our libraries are facing cut backs due to decreasing use, I would hope to see a thriving community library remaining in the village for many more years to come.

The other big news in the village was the sudden shock closure of Lymm Post Office.

As Lymm Life went to press there was still no news on when, or if the Post office will re-open.

This will be a huge loss to the village and hopefully it will re-open in the not too distant future.

But just like the libraries, Post offices are going through changing times, with more and more people now communicating via email and mobile phones.

Finally a big congratulations to everyone involved in Lymm Dickensian Day. Despite over cast skies the rain held off and it was fantastic to see thousands of people packing into the village centre.

To those involved helping organise our community events – keep up the good work!

I suspect some of you may be involved in the library at some point in the future, as libraries are starting to rely more on community volunteers to survive - the one at nearby Grappenhall being a classic example.

Deadline for the February issue of Lymm Life is January 3, 2017

Charity funds rocket to £20,000 at Lymm bonfire

LYMM and District Round Table's annual bonfire has raised a staggering £20,000 for charity and local good causes.

This dwarfs the record total of £13,500 and represents the most successful event in the Table's history.

The popular event – sponsored by Kids Planet Nursery and held at Lymm Rugby Club – wowed the crowd with two fireworks displays, a range of food, refreshments and fairground rides.

Lymm Ladies Circle, who served up some warming beverages, contributed £1200 to the total, while Statham Community Primary School raised over £300.

Bonfire organiser and Round Table member Steve Liput said: "We are delighted with the amount we have raised this year and a big thank you must go to everyone who came along, our main sponsors Kids Planet, the rugby club for hosting us and the traders who also provide a welcome contribution to the charity kitty.

"It was clearly a very busy night and we need to think carefully about how we manage the crowds next year in order to ensure it remains one of the best bonfire and fireworks displays in the local area.

"That said, our next big job is to decide who to donate all the charity money to!"

Any one who would like to nominate a charity to be considered for a donation should email charity@lymmroundtable.co.uk

Kids Planet tops national ranking for quality

LYMM based nursery group Kids Planet has claimed the number one spot in a compilation of Ofsted ratings for the 20 largest nursery groups in the UK.

Family run Kids Planet's Head Office is based in Lymm and it has nurseries in Crewe, Hale, Salford, Liverpool, Lymm, Prestwich, Sale, Salford, Southport, Urmston, Warrington and Widnes, as well as Jeffrey's Corner in Dukinfield and Springhead, providing educational care to 1,755 children across the North West.

Kids Planet is number one in this year's Nursery World Ofsted table with 14 of its inspected nurseries graded Outstanding, three with Good grades and one awaiting inspection. Nursery World ranks the 20 biggest nursery groups in the UK by compiling the grades from the latest published Ofsted reports and analysing the findings using a points-based rating system. Kids Planet has been number two in the rankings for the past two years.

Clare Roberts, who started Kids Planet in 2008 with her father John Hoban said: "We are thrilled with this accolade and this is a real reflection of the hard work dedication and commitment from all of our nursery teams over the last eight years."

"We believe in working together and continuously reflecting on what we do. This is recognition of our commitment to make sure that we give the best possible start to the children in our care."

Clare (centre) with her father John and sister Lucy.

Community Conversations brings people together

MORE than 100 people from the Lymm, Thelwall and High Legh areas met for a "Community Conversation" arranged in conjunction with the ROC "Redeeming our Communities" organisation.

The meeting, at Lymm High School, was also attended by High Sheriff of Cheshire Kathy Cowell, Mayor of Warrington Faisal Rashid, borough council officers and members, parish councillors, police, fire and health professionals.

Many community groups were also represented at the meeting.

The evening began by celebrating the 100-plus existing groups and activities, primarily run by local volunteers.

Time was then spent assessing the issues, needs and gaps in provision for various elements of the community, and finally, everybody turned their minds to potential solutions, which generated a wealth of creative and practical ideas, together with offers of support to enable them to happen.

The "Conversation" was of course just the start of the ROC initiative which aims to bring people of goodwill together to make safer, kinder communities.

Several projects have already commenced, including the collection of elderly people in a minibus for a weekly coffee morning in High Legh, and a dementia café and PCSO surgery, both at the Sanctuary Café in Lymm.

A team, including the police and local youth workers is also making plans to establish provision for young people who routinely congregate in and around the village or parks on Friday evenings.

The admin team at Lymm Baptist Church offered to support the ongoing initiative.

To obtain a copy of the report from the evening, find out more, or explore ways in which you can get involved in supporting the local community, contact admin@lymbaptistchurch.com or call 01925 752805.

Mayor helps JD Kitchens celebrate recipe for success

WARRINGTON based JD Kitchens celebrated 15 years in business with a visit from the town's Mayor Cllr Faisal Rashid - who by coincidence has been overseeing their progress for more than a decade.

In his "day job" at the Nat West Bank the mayor has been the relationship manager with JD Kitchen's owner Dave Charlton.

Dave takes great pride in the fact that he has built his kitchen business up from a spare back bedroom at his home in the early days, to a showroom boasting quality kitchens.

The business has blossomed providing mid to high end kitchens, from a showroom on Gorsey Lane, Warrington, using the latest design technology, offering a complete service from start to finish.

Dave, who is also as a director on the Kitchen, Bedroom Specialist Association (KBSA), which helps regulate the industry, is the only outlet in the local area to supply modern and contemporary style German manufactured kitchens, whilst also offering a more traditional style kitchen from UK manufacturer, Mackintosh. He is also the local Neff Master Partner.

Congratulating JD Kitchens on their 15th anniversary in business Cllr Rashid said: "I have known Dave for over 10 years and I am really pleased to be here as Mayor of Warrington and also his bank manager as well. It is really good to support local business and see them grow."

"I have seen Dave's progress and this is a great example of a local business which are the life blood of our local economy. They create jobs and wealth which go back into the economy.

"During my year my theme has been to support local businesses which are very important."

Dave added: "Despite all the fears of Brexit and of prices going up people are still buying kitchens and we have a healthy order book."

To find out more about JD Kitchens why not visit their showrooms at 4 Gorsey Lane and see first hand the quality of their workmanship or visit www.jdkitchens.co.uk

Dickens of a Day as thousands flock to village

Parish council chairman Joe Griffiths, Festival chairman Steve Harper and Town Crier Peter Powell.

THOUSANDS of people packed into Lymm village for the annual Dickensian Day.

Despite overcast skies the rain held off as Town Crier Peter Powell led a parade from the Lymm Hotel into the village centre as thousands lined the streets.

Around 250 Santas from Lymm Runners also joined in the event with a 5k "Santa Dash" adding to the festive feel of the community occasion.

Youngsters from local schools entered into the spirit of the occasion wearing fancy dress and were joined in the parade by Father and Mother Christmas on the Rotary float, vintage vehicles and a steam traction engine.

The Festival has been running for around 30 years and is backed by Lymm Parish Council and various community groups and organised by volunteers chaired by Steve Harper.

Inspiring youngsters receive special awards

THE 4lymm Voluntary Organisation handed out their annual youth awards to two young people from the Lymm area.

This year's award recipients were Daisy Sharp, aged 13 and Luca Bolger, aged 9.

Luca was nominated for the award for his cheerful and caring nature and enthusiasm for all aspects of school life. He is always sensitive to the needs of others and constantly gives to charity. Last year he asked if he could give three pounds a month to Water Aid so that other young children could have clean water like himself.

Daisy is a volunteer at Riding For The Disabled where she helps out on Monday and Wednesday evening by leading the ponies under the direction of the instructor. She also helps out with saddling the horses, returning them to the stables, grooming the ponies and clearing out the stables.

The award organiser was Councillor Kath Buckley, and Town Crier, Peter Powell who made the presentation in the village hall.

Anyone interested in the 4lymm group visit www.4lymm.org.uk, where you can see their forthcoming events, pictures of their previous events and presentations plus details of organisations who have benefited from the money they have raised.

Anger over "industrial style" house plan

PLANNING chiefs have given the go-ahead for a controversial house in the garden of an existing house at Lymm.

Ten neighbours had lodged objections to the proposal in Oughtrington Lane and there was considerable anger at the decision.

Local councillor Sheila Woodyatt voted against it and was disappointed that only one other member of the committee joined her.

She told the borough council's development management committee that the ultra-modern style of the property would be completely out of character with other houses in Oughtrington Lane.

After the meeting she said: "It will be huge and it will only be about six feet from the existing house."

"The ultra modern style of the property really is out of character with neighbouring properties."

The four-bedroomed detached house – which will have a basement swimming pool – will be built in the garden of an existing detached house.

Neighbours said the design of the property would not be in keeping with the area, resembling an industrial unit rather than a house. They also had road safety concerns.

But Lymm Parish Council did not object and planning officers recommended the scheme be approved.

The house will have four bedrooms, linen store and bathroom at first floor level, kitchen, dining room, quiet room, family room, office, store and toilet on the ground floor and a swimming pool and changing facilities at basement level.

A single-storey garage will be demolished to make way for the development.

Withington's winning ways

WITHINGTON Girls' School have been celebrating a series of wins in a wide range of pursuits across the whole age range of the school community from Junior pupils, through Sixth Form to teaching staff.

Year 6 girls took part in the Manchester Schools Pop Lacrosse tournament in which twelve teams participated. The Withington girls won all five of their matches, scoring a total of 40 goals in the process. Pop Lacrosse is a mixed game of five-a-side, with up to 3 boys allowed in a team. WGS was the only all-girls team and will now proceed to the North West Final in March 2017 where they will represent Manchester.

A team of Year 12 students won the annual Sir Rhys Davies Mock Trial competition, contested between twelve local independent and state schools, at Manchester Crown Court on 26th November. Playing the roles of defence and prosecution lawyers, defendants, witnesses, clerks and ushers, they won in the final v Bury Grammar Boys. In addition, the Withington 'court reporters' won the Manchester Evening News Law Reporting Award.

In the same week, Head of PE Mrs Mhairi Ferrol and the Leigh Women's Team won the Mail on Sunday National Golf Club Classic competition at the El Rompido course in Spain. They claimed a 4-1 win over Bude & North Cornwall, having won against Scottish champions, Burntisland in the semi-final.

Former Scotland hockey international Mrs Ferrol, who captained the team, said she hopes to get more girls interested in golf, inspire them to 'go for it' in their own chosen sport and see that 'success at national level is far from impossible if you are sufficiently dedicated and believe in yourself'.

Villagers shocked by sudden closure of Lymm Post Office

VILLAGERS were left shocked by the sudden closure of Lymm Post Office.

A notice appeared in the window saying the closure was due to "exceptional circumstances."

Another notice said all parcels had to be collected from Altrincham Post Office.

Local Councillor Ian Marks said: "This is very worrying and no one seems to know what is going on.

"It is particularly concerning as we are approaching Christmas and lots of people will be expecting parcels. People are shocked and it has all happened so quickly."

A Post Office Spokesperson said: "We can confirm that due to circumstances beyond our control Lymm Post Office, Harrison's of Lymm, 2 The Cross, Lymm WA13 0HP has temporarily closed.

"We know how important Post Office services are to people in Lymm and we are committed to maintaining services in the area. We will continue to work hard to restore service in the area as soon as possible.

"In the meantime any customers wishing to access Post Office services may do so from any convenient Post Office branch, including:

- Statham Post Office, 61 Albany Road, Statham, Lymm WA13 9LT
- Broomedge Post Office, 286 Higher Lane, Broomedge, Lymm WA13 0RW"

Matt flying the flag in the USA

A talented rugby league player from Warrington is making a name for himself in the USA, after securing a prestigious scholarship, at not one but THREE American Universities.

Former Warrington Collegiate student Matt Barker from Lymm, studied the Rugby League BTEC Extended Diploma Level 3 – run in partnership with Warrington Wolves, at the College and left the UK at the end of July, after completing his studies at the Winwick Road campus.

Matt, aged 19, had originally planned to study Health Science and Marketing for Springhill College in Alabama, after securing a full scholarship with them; but decided to instead study at yet another American University, Iowa Central Community College where he also been offered a scholarship. He was also offered a scholarship at St Mary's College of California.

The former Lymm High School pupil, who is studying Athletic Training (Physiotherapy), said: "So far I am really enjoying it. The class work is really challenging but it makes it worthwhile when I get to play rugby every day."

Matt, who started playing rugby at the age of 11, is currently captaining the rugby team, which has so far beaten every team in the state. He has made such an impression that he was named Man of the Match during his first game.

In a post on their Facebook page

Iowa Central Community College Triton Rugby team said: "Matt has an enormous wealth of knowledge for the game; an accurate and booming foot and strong leadership qualities. Matt is like a coach on the field."

Matt said: "The rugby league course at Warrington Collegiate was the next step for me in learning about the sport. I had never played rugby league before I came to Warrington Collegiate so it helped me to progress with different parts of my game."

Matt is double majoring in Business and Athletic Training, meaning he will come away from University with two Bachelor degrees.

He added: "The modules I studied at Warrington Collegiate gave me transferable skills and knowledge that I am able to put into the work I am doing now here in Iowa."

Project to help those with a long term health condition or disability

WARRINGTON Disability Partnership, with funding from Active Cheshire has set up a Living Life Well Project offering "Let's Go Sessions" in Lymm.

The sessions are Free (including drinks and biscuits) and designed to support people with long term health conditions and disabilities by developing self-help groups which will offer peer support (meeting people who share the same experiences), themed sessions (information, advice and guidance), guest speakers and additional support from staff and volunteers from Warrington Disability Partnership.

The project provides opportunities for people living with long-term health conditions and disabilities to improve their health and well-being through sharing coping strategies to manage their ill health and to access information on healthy living to increase their participation in social and physical activities.

The sessions will help people to manage their own condition(s), help with understanding treatments and medication - involve people in planning their own care to help improve the outcomes of treatment, prevent deterioration or complications (including regular visits to GP's and admissions to hospital), and can make people feel more in control of their life. Knowing what support options are available can build confidence and when to ask for help.

Sessions will include:
Understanding your condition, medication management, money advice, healthy lifestyles, self-help (pain management), reflexology and massage, peer support and welfare benefits and local concessions.

Weekly events are scheduled to take place at Lymm Youth & Community Centre Wednesday 10 - 12 noon on January, 11, 18 and 25th.

February 1, 8, 15 and 22 and March 1.

Obituary

Couple's joint funeral after 57 years of marriage

A LYMM couple died within four days of each other after 57 years of marriage.

Their funerals took place on their wedding anniversary at St Winefride's RC Church, Lymm – the church where they were married in 1959.

Louie Davies, nee Roberts, aged 82, was cremated at Altrincham Crematorium while her husband, Thomas Edward Davies, aged 84, was buried in the family grave at St Mary's Church, Lymm.

The couple had lived at Statham and are survived by one daughter, Anne.

Edward – who was known as Chappie – was a self-employed painter and decorator all his life, carrying on the family business started by his father, Thomas, in 1928.

His passion was working with wood, making models to scale. He enjoyed steam engine rallies, fairground organs, vintage and classic cars and was proud of achieving his ambition of building his own house.

Louie had worked at a printing works, the Danebank Hotel and Cotebrook House in Lymm. She shared Edward and Anne's hobbies although her passion was helping people and animals – particularly injured, homeless or hungry animals. She also enjoyed handicrafts and embroidery.

Louie, Edward and Anne enjoyed holidays in the UK, particularly Scotland, Yorkshire, Devon, Cornwall and Wales. They were devoted to each other and to their beloved Border Collie dog Spot.

Early in the year, Louie and Edward started a prolonged period of multiple illnesses which they endured without complaining and with dignity.

Funeral arrangements were by John Burrows and Sons, of Lymm.
