Editor's Comment

WE had an extremely lively election campaign in Culcheth and Glazebury, leading to a much changed parish council, Labour now dominating by almost the same margin as the Conservatives had previously.

The campaign was fought on party political lines, but in fairness this was largely due to it being held in tandem with a borough council election.

We do not believe party politics should play any role at parish council level and the early indications are that councillors of both parties share this view. The first meeting of the new council was a convivial affair with most members already on first name terms, Labour supporting the election of a Conservative chairman and a unanimous agreement to change the date of meetings to allow new Labour member Chris Vobe to also attend meetings of Croft Parish Council, to which he had also been elected.

There may be undercurrents, for political differences can arouse strong feelings, but the early signs are good. We need 10 councillors working for the good of Culcheth and Glazebury and hopefully that will be what we get.

Indoor 'street party'

MEMBERS of Croft WI enjoyed their own indoor "Jubilee Street Party" at their monthly meeting.

The hall was decked in bunting and Union Jacks, tables were set out in Jubilee style and members, many dressed in red, white and blue, enjoyed "street party" refreshments.

Rousing renditions of "Land of Hope and Glory" and the National Anthem closed the meeting on a patriotic note.

Earlier, the meeting had unanimously supported the national WI resolution calling on the Government to increase investment in the training, employment and retention of midwives.

On August 1, the WI are visiting a cheese factory, on October 24 they will be visiting "The Mousetrap" in Manchester while on November 6, there will be a tour of Media City on Salford.

The next meeting is on June 10 when there will be a competition for a flower arrangement in a teacup.

Sarah's crowning glory

NINE-year-old Sarah de Jong was crowned Newchurch Rose Queen 2012 during the annual Walk of Witness at the parish church.

It was quite a family affair as her sister, Sophie was one of her attendants and the other attendants were brothers Antony and Joshua Carroll, aged six and sisters Lizzie and Susie Kirsten, aged nine and eight.

Sarah was crowned by choir members Janet and Rupert Rees during the church service.

Thomas Smith aged 11 carried the Junior Church Banner during the Walk of Witness through the parish,

Elections bring sweeping changes

THE borough and parish council elections brought big changes in the Culcheth, Croft and Glazebury areas.

Labour's Chris Vobe - son of Warrington North MP Helen Jones - contested the Culcheth Glazebury and Croft seat on the borough council and scored a massive victory over Keith Bland, veteran leader of the Conservative group on the borough council and former deputy leader of the council.

He also contested seats on both the Culcheth and Glazebury and Croft parish councils - and won both, coming top of the poll at Croft.

Labour now outnumber the Conservatives 7-3 on the Culcheth and Glazebury council.

The result of the borough council election in Culcheth, Glazebury and Croft was: Keith Bland (Cons) 1305; Merrill Cummerson (Lib Dem) 264; Chris Vobe (Lab). 2134

Ironically, Cllr Bland was chairman elect and the council put political differences to one side to unanimously elect him as chairman for the coming year. Cllr Jacqui Johnson was elected deputy chairman.

Elected to Croft Parish Council were: Valerie Margaret Allen (Cons) 290; Merrill Cummerson (Lib Dems) 289; James Francis Hilton (Cons) 288; Thomas Leslie Hoyle; (Cons) 328; Joseph Jeffrey Shelley (Cons) 316; Chris Vobe (Lab) 423.

Elected to Winwick Parish Council were: Pamela Barrow 268; John Richard Gordon 203; Susan Gordon (Ind) 305; Ann Iddon 258; Alan Smith (Ind) 209.

Elected to Rixton-with-Glazebrook were: Liz Clarke 185; Maurice Johnson 175; David McLachlan 234; David Trenbath 225.

Victorian values

LOCAL businessman Mark Hall has big plans for the future and has laid the foundation stone with the launch of Hall's Victorian Sweet Shop and Tea Room in Warrington Road, Glazebury.

Traditional values combined with creativity, an elegant setting and talented chefs are Mark's recipe for success

One of the chefs, Dominic Noble, boasts impressive credentials having worked for Gary Rhodes and his talents are put to excellent use with made-to-order cakes.

Having taken a master class with Jean-Christophe Novelli, a former personal chef to the Rothschild family, another chef, Joe Wynn delivers both traditional and creative dishes from locally sourced produce.

The shop is indeed impressive. There's a "sweet wall" boasting fans aged 5-85 and Mark's two sons are ecstatic about the milk shakes on offer - some of which are inspired by the sweets from the sweet wall.

Italian ice cream is on offer and in the future Mark plans to launch his own brand of ice cream.

Only the best china and tea pots are used, meaning that customers have their tea served elegantly and traditionally.

Open seven days a week, with free parking, good value home cooking and tasty breakfasts, Hall's Victorian Sweet Shop and Tea Room aims to become a regular destination for locals and visitors.

Mark's plans include growing his own produce and eventually to have a chain of similar sweet shops and tea rooms.

He said: "My aim is to build a business with tradition very much at its heart so that my boys can eventually take over the reins and see it thrive for generations to come."

Flower power

FLOWER power is helping Culcheth Scouts with their fund-raising.

Members of the 3rd Warrington East Scout group held a flower and plant sale outside their HQ on Jackson Avenue, Culcheth, which has become one of their regular fund raising initiatives.

Secretary Susan Aldridge and treasurer Rob Anderson are pictured at the event.

— Advertiser's announcement —

Clothing company with so much to offer

CULCHETH-based school uniform business Cactus Clothing has much more to offer - particularly since moving to its new premises in Glaziers Lane.

A family firm, established seven years ago, it previously had a warehouse in Warrington, a separate embroidery workshop and a retail outlet in Culcheth's CPS Centre.

Now everything has been brought together under one roof with all the extra convenience that means for customers and proprietor Andy Shaw, his wife Giusi and his father, Ken, who together make up the Cactus team.

Andy, who worked in sportswear manufacturing before opening his own business, said: "We are particularly proud of our personalisation service.

"If you have a hen party, a 21st birthday, a golfing trip, or some similar special event, or if you have a business that you want to stand out, then we can supply you with a wide range of quality, logoed garments.

"We can do all sorts of things, from basic embroidery to full, multicolour print."

Since moving into their new premises, Cactus have become official supplier of clothing to the Rainbows, Brownies and Guides.

Chelsea's on the upbeat!

BUDDING jazz musician Chelsea Carmichael is to appear at this year's Wigan International Jazz Festival - as first tenor saxist in the Wigan Youth Jazz Orchestra.

It will be a big step forward for the 18-year-old former Culcheth High School pupil as world famous Australian multi-instrumentalist James Morrison will be guesting with the band and the festival, in July, will also be playing host to a number of top American musicians as well as Britain's own Alan Price and the National Youth Jazz Orchestra.

She said: "It will be great to sharing the stage with such big-name musicians."

Another big step in Chelsea's musical career is acceptance at London's prestigious Trinity Music College, where she will be going in September.

But she is already making a name for herself in the music world.

She has played with a number of orchestras, including the National Youth Jazz Orchestra, and recorded with the Andy Pryor Big Band, which regularly appears on television.

Locally, she has played at various gigs, including with the Culcheth Phoenix Band.

Chelsea first showed an interest in music at 12 when she arrived home from school and asked if she could have a violin.

Dad Winston didn't fancy the sound of someone learning the violin in the house and persuaded her to try the piano instead!

But Chelsea found herself attracted to jazz and took up the saxophone and clarinet as well.

She played in the Culcheth High School swing band and, at 15, successfully auditioned for the Wigan Youth Jazz Orchestra.

At first she concentrated on the alto sax and clarinet, but later switched to the larger tenor sax - and admits to being a fan of the late, great American tenor star Eddie Lockjaw

Davis.

Proud Dad Winston can't believe how his daughter has progressed in the music world.

"I don't know where she gets it from - no-one has been particularly musical in the family before.

"But she has had great encouragement from teachers and friends right from the start and has always had good teachers."

Community Day ha

THE annual Culcheth Community Day has been hailed a great success by organisers.

Culcheth borough and parish councillor Chris Vobe said the event, organised by Culcheth and Glazebury Parish Council had been a "success" despite mixed weather.

He said: "For the newly-elected councillors, this was an important event which they had to oversee just two days into their new roles.

"But everyone rose to the challenge well and members of both political parties were able to work constructively and pro-actively to make this a successful event for families in the village."

He said the day was a great opportunity for local organisations and charities to showcase their work and raise funds. He also commented on the interest in the Glazebury Play Area Committee, which aims to provide a natural children's play area for the village.

CLr Vobe added: "The new Culcheth and Glazebury Parish

Church's new £40,000 play area

30-year success story based on quality

WHEN Frank Warner lost his job when the Hygena Kitchens factory in Kirkby closed down, he saw it as an opportunity rather than a disaster.

He and his wife, Pat, launched their own kitchen and bathroom company, Tapefox, at St Helens.

That was in June, 1982 - and since then the company has never looked back.

The following year they were joined by son Noel, who is now managing director.

Frank and Pat have now both retired, although they still drop in from time to time to keep an eye on things.

Over the years, Tapefox has expanded.

In 1988, a further unit was opened at the factory in St Helens and a showroom created. And in 2004, a second showroom was opened at Culcheth with Noel's wife, Jane, as showroom manager.

Now celebrating 30 years in business, the company is run by Noel and his sister, Wendy and provides a unique, bespoke retail service.

They deliver to customers the length and breadth of the country, from Aberdeen right down to the south coast of England.

Their kitchens have also been sent as far afield as Europe, including Norway and Spain, and to Hong Kong and even Africa.

The Tapefox bespoke service is possible because they manufacture their own carcasses at the St Helens factory. They can be made to suit almost any size the customer requires.

The cabinets, whether for a kitchen, bedroom or study can be supplied and fitted by Tapefox's own expert fitters or can be supplied rigid or flatpack for self-fitting.

Tapefox can also revamp a kitchen or bedroom by fitting replacement doors and, in the case of a kitchen, replacement worktops and appliances where required.

In an age when so much is dominated by mass produced, fit-all products, they have made an ongoing success out of the traditional virtues of quality, tailor-made for the customer's requirements.

AN attractive, all-weather play area has been created at Culcheth Methodist Church - thanks to a £40,000 Biffa award.

The play area will provide space for younger children to play and for older children to have opportunities for sport and recreation.

The church had to compete nationally for one of the coveted awards but earlier this year learned their application had been successful.

Chris Bridge, who made the application and project managed the work, praised those who had supported the church in its bid.

These included David Heaton (Biffa, North West regional manager) and Rachel Burns (Biffa, Risley site manager) Graham Chisnall, of the Hamilton Davies Trust, who provided a third party funding element and Barbara White, of Warrington Borough Council, for support from the Extended Service fund.

An open day for all the uniformed organisations and youth club members who will use the play area will take place in July.

However, the area will be used from June 1 for Junior Church, the Church Youth Club, Mums and Tots, ABC Pre-School, Rainbows, Brownies, Guides, Beavers, Cubs and Scouts who all use the Methodist Church Hall on a weekly basis.

In addition the church is funding a sports youth worker from June 1 to August 31 to arrange activities for young people throughout the summer holidays.

10 Top Tips - Improving your Cash Flow

By Stuart Hurst, Client Service Manager

Cash flow is generally acknowledged as the single most pressing concern of small and medium sized companies. In its simplest form cash flow is the movement of money; it's the life-blood of all growing businesses and the primary indicator of business health.

Despite being so integral to business, good cash management in business is not always the norm. However good cash management processes have a double benefit; it can help you avoid the debilitating downside of cash crises and give you that commercial edge.

With that in mind, here are my Top Ten Tips for improving your cash flow:

1. Short term cash flow forecasts are key; 13 week rolling forecasts can prove very useful.
2. Set a collection period suitable to your business

3. Consider credit checks for new customers and review for existing customers

4. Agree fees and payment terms in advance where possible

5. Learn your debtors payment cycle, when is the last day for getting an invoice approved and included in a payment run?

6. Don't feel guilty about collecting a debt, chase as soon as it becomes overdue

7. Identify the best contact to maintain a strong relationship – who is the person that authorises payments to suppliers?

8. Consider interim billing

9. Get several quotes and compare prices to reduce costs

10. Only pay for goods when due

Please call 01925 761600 or visit www.stylesandco.co.uk to find out more about our cash flow management services.

The new Culcheth and Glazebury Parish Council / Meeting Times

Our page this month shows the make-up of the new Culcheth and Glazebury Parish Council following the May elections. The new Council will meet on the second Tuesday of every month (except August). Details of the meetings will be posted in advance on the notice boards throughout the villages. We welcome and encourage members of the public to come along – the meetings are open to anyone, and we are always keen to hear your ideas and comments on local matters.

Culcheth Community Day

A big thank you must go to everyone who helped to make this day a success. Despite the mixed weather, it was an enjoyable day and was a great opportunity to showcase local organisations. Of course, we want to hear your ideas for next year's event. If you have any suggestions, or would like to get involved with Community Day 2013, please don't hesitate to contact one of your parish councillors.

Dog Fouling

Newchurch parish councillors Chris, Jacqui and Matt are leading the fight to tackle issues of dog fouling in the villages. They recognise that this has been a long-standing problem on certain roads and are now determined that strong action be taken. Over the next few weeks, they will be liaising with Warrington Borough Council to find an effective solution. They are also calling on any residents who have information about dog owners who allow their pets to foul to get in touch – any information will be treated in strict confidence.

Local Plan Core Strategy

The proposed submission of the Local Plan Core Strategy goes out to consultation for seven weeks from May 21st. Residents will be able to take part in the online consultation, or write and email with comments. It's very important that Culcheth and Glazebury residents give their feedback on policies that they do and don't support. For more information, please get in touch with Jacqui Johnson on 01925 76 34 35.

Publication of Information

The Parish Council has adopted a Publication of Information scheme. Details of who we are, what we do and how the public can access information, are published on the main notice board on Common Lane, Culcheth and in Culcheth Library.

Youth shelters back on the agenda

YOUTH shelters in Culcheth are "back on the agenda" following a meeting of the Stronger Together Warrington East board, members of the parish council, youth service, police and other interested parties.

The Stronger Together board, at the suggestion of co-ordinator Diane White, has agreed to start a consultation process with the whole village while the parish council is going to come up with some possible sites where they believe it will have a low impact on residents.

Feedback will also be sought from local youngsters on where they believe the best location should be and a special Culcheth Youth Action Group Facebook page is being created by local social networking specialist Beccs McNeill, to help gather feedback.

Board member Paul Taylor from Taylor Business Park said: "We're looking to have at least two shelters in different locations on the village green but again it all depends on the consultation. Community projects like this work best when they're led by the people in the community who will be using them, so we're hoping one or two local youths (or even a group of them) will pick up the torch on this one and work closely with ourselves, the council, 'stronger together', the police and other local groups.

"We will be approaching local companies to see if they can offer their support financially."

Paul added: "We are more than aware that the problems with youths in the area are well behind us these days and for those reasons we should give them somewhere in the village they can call their own. The local youths have as much of a right to enjoy Culcheth as we do and it's about time we let them put their stamp on it!

"We are hoping for some youths to sign up to the Culcheth Youth Action Group and run with this themselves, in conjunction with other interested parties.

"We want it to be youth-led so the facilities get used and looked after in the future. Their input and enthusiasm is vital to its success."

The Piercing Eyes have it in photo competition

A STRIKING, close-range shot of an owl has won the annual Bents Garden and Home photography competition.

The picture, entitled "Piercing Eyes" was taken by Sarah Fairclough. Sarah's photograph was one of 20 shortlisted from a total of 1,400 entries for the competition and was displayed in the centre's Fresh Approach restaurant and also on Facebook, where customers were invited to vote for their favourite picture.

She said: "Photography is one of my passions and I particularly enjoy taking photos of animals and nature and being able to capture a specific moment in time. The Bent's competition provides the perfect opportunity for amateur photographers like myself to share our images with others and I am delighted that my Piercing Eyes shot seemed to catch the imagination of so many people."

Managing director Matthew Bent, added: "The quality of entries this year was incredible and with over a thousand entries we had a really hard time preparing a shortlist."

"The 20 finalists were all beautiful shots and they can still be viewed on our Facebook site. But we could only have one winner and customers to the Fresh Approach Restaurant and visitors to Facebook were unanimous in their choice. Sarah's owl won many admirers and we are delighted she is our 2012 winner."

Sarah received £50 worth of Bents vouchers and a framed copy of her winning image.

Inquiry made big difference

Graham Chisnall,
chairman Risley Landfill Opposition Group

WHILST the sentiment of your article (Editor's Comment, May issue) is broadly true in so far as Biffa continue to flout planning by continuing to request further time to complete restoration, which is extremely frustrating, I would like to point out that the inquiry stopped Biffa gaining planning permission to continue tipping on additional land to the east which would have enabled Biffa to continue tipping for years - and given the green light for further applications.

In essence the inquiry put a stop to continued use for tipping after October 2011; if we had lost, tipping would be ongoing and completion of restoration a future dream.

My point is that it is not correct to state the inquiry made no difference - it has made a big difference even though the general public do not realise the fact.

World's first pedestrian airbag

Volvo's first new model to be fully developed according to its human-centric, Designed Around You strategy, the car is the first in the world to feature a pedestrian airbag, an innovation which helps reduce the severity of pedestrian injuries in the event of an impact.

The five door, five seat luxury hatchback is also the only model in its class to fit City Safety as standard and offer Pedestrian Detection, effective at speeds of up to 22mph.

The car will have Bluetooth fitted as standard across the range. Customers are able to place orders now and Volvo expects the first customer cars to be delivered in September.

Advertiser's Announcement

Take a tip from an oven expert

OVEN cleaning expert Paul Clark is taking the heat of his customers this summer with his specialist oven cleaning services.

Paul, owner of Ovenu Warrington has been delivering his environmentally-friendly oven valeting service to homes in the area for nearly five years.

Paul said: "Cleaning the oven is one of those jobs that people love to avoid and it's a chore that's often neglected. This summer when the weather hots up, people naturally love to be outside rather than stuck at home cleaning and our professional oven valeting service is designed to take the heat off customers. Summer is a time when a lot of families enjoy meals together, especially if the British weather isn't good enough to let them have barbeques, so it is essential to have a nice clean appliance ready for all that cooking!"

"It is also important to keep ovens in top condition for health and safety reasons. For example, spilt oils and cooking fats are two of the main causes of oven fires and an unclean oven can also be a breeding ground for germs. It is really important to make sure ovens are kept in the best condition to ensure they work to their full potential.

Customers can see how Paul's system works by watching a video at the website www.ovenwarrington.net The Ovenu valeting process involves dismantling key components of an oven such as the door, interior panels, fan and shelves. The parts are placed into design-registered equipment, which uses non caustic products to clean the oven parts. The whole process takes around three hours and leaves the oven, hob and exterior in immaculate and safe condition. Householders who feel their oven is in need of service can find out more by contacting Paul on 01925 453377 or by visiting his website.
