IT would appear that Lymm is all set to embrace the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations if the parish council's proposals are anything to go by.

I fully expect to see Lymm bedecked in right white and blue from the beginning of June.

Included in the proposals are some permanent memorials including an inscription at the village's historic cross and a jubilee fountain in the lower dam.

I just hope these memorials can stand the test of time and don't become an easy target for vandals.

Vandalism in the village centre has been a problem on and off for a long time and while we can not let mindless idiots stop us celebrating the Queen's Diamond Jubilee we need to ensure whatever is created - is pretty much vandal proof.

I also hope the Jubilee celebrations can help give a big boost to community spirit which can then kick on into the annual May Queen Festival and of course the annual Lymm Festival.

I also hope the Lymm village traders and local businesses fully embrace all the celebrations and recognise the hard work done by the volunteers within our unique community.

Let's make sure the Diamond Jubilee is something we can all enjoy and remember as it will be a long time before we have another one!

Full details of all the memorials and activities being planned for the village can be found elsewhere in this edition of Lymm Life.

Meera in tune for the top!

YOUNG musician Meera Maharaj has been awarded a place in the prestigious National Youth Wind Orchestra at the age of 16.

It is one of many achievements the young solo flautist from Lymm High School has achieved since starting lessons at Ravenbank Primary School.

Meera is currently in the Lower 6th at Lymm High School and for the past five years she has also studied on Saturdays at the prestigious junior department of the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester. She hopes to study music performance after school.

Meera has been awarded a place in the National Youth Wind Orchestra of Great Britain for 2012, an under 21's orchestra. This entails two residential courses at Easter and in the Summer holidays followed by concerts at The Royal Academy of Music in London at Easter and then at The Royal Albert Hall as part of the BBC Proms on the closing day of the Olympics.

She was Principal Flute in the National Children's Wind Orchestra in 2010 and was a member of the main orchestra of the National Children's Orchestra of Great Britain in 2009. She is also currently Principal Flute in the Liverpool Philharmonic Youth Orchestra, a position she has held since 2010 and she also plays first flute in the JRNCM Symphony Orchestra.

As a soloist, Meera has won the British Flute Society's Performance Plus Competition for school age performers at two levels as well as enjoying successes in various music festivals in the NW region.

Meera began flute lessons at Ravenbank Primary School, with local flautist Nicola Gerrard, who has been tremendously encouraging over the years. She has received two Arts Grants from Warrington Borough Council to assist with attending specialist flute courses in Surrey and Scotland. Lymm High School have also given great support, because at times, juggling all her various commitments becomes challenging!

In 2010 Meera was invited by Lymm Rotary Club to be one of the soloists in their gala concert at the Bridgewater Hall in aid of The Christie Hospital. This was a fantastic performance experience, and she was sponsored by her local club in this year's RIBI Young Musician Competition.

Meanwhile Meera has recently got through to the finals of the Upper Division of the Warrington Young Musician 2012 Competition, organised by WACIDOM.

The final is to be held at Arley Hall on March 25.

Meera is modest of her achievements saying: "I just love playing the flute and music is a big part of my life."

Deadline for the May issue of Lymm Life is April 3

Become a 'good egg!'

LYMM Village Hall Playgroup is launching a 'Good Eggs of Lymm' Competition to raise much needed funds for the charity which is hugely reliant on fundraising.

The essence of the competition is that local traders, businesses, clubs and individuals will buy a Good Egg from the Playgroup and decorate it in their own distinctive branding. Schools, pre-schools and churches will be given eggs free to reinforce a wish that this initiative will bring the community together.

In the run up to Easter, the participants will be encouraged to display their Eggs in their shops and businesses and villagers are encouraged to view them.

In the final week, all of the Good Eggs will be displayed in Sainsbury's for people to vote for their favourite 'Good Egg of Lymm'. A trophy will be awarded to the Good Egg with the most votes and will be presented on Good Friday in the village.

Eggs will start to be displayed from March 19 so keep your eyes open!

To become a "good egg" contact Catherine Birkett on 01925 752899 / catherinebirkett@gmail.com or Clare McKenna on 07808989520 / mckennaclar@tiscali.co.uk

Quacks away! All set for duck race!

IT'S 'quacks away' for the annual Lymm Duck Race once again on Easter Monday (April 9th) thanks to the Round Table.

The popular event takes place in Lymm village, with the race beginning at 12.30pm.

A wide range of food stalls and children's entertainment will be open from 10.30am.

Organiser and Round Table member John Edwards said: "We broke all records last year by raising over £5,000 for charity and local causes so we have a lot to live up to this time around.

"We're hoping some good weather will bring out the crowds again in support of this great community event. We're particularly keen this year to hear from businesses who may wish to get their name out there in front of hundreds of local folk, either as one of the main sponsors or by buying a corporate or super duck."

Racing duck tickets can be bought online at www.lymmduckrace.co.uk - normal duck tickets are priced at £1, with corporate ducks £30 and super ducks £60. The first duck over the line receives £100, second place £50 and third £25.

Alternatively, tickets are on sale near The Cross, Lymm, on the four Saturdays preceding Easter Monday and they can also be bought on the day.

Anyone interested in sponsorship or with an idea for running a stall, should contact John on 07772 235235 or john@235consulting.com

Advertiser's announcement

Preparing for Spring - ovens deserve some special care

WITH the lighter nights approaching, households everywhere will be preparing for spring cleaning sessions to get homes in order for the summer months.

Paul Clark, from professional oven valeters Ovenu, is reminding people that after a long, hard winter, ovens deserve some special care during the spring cleaning season.

For even the most enthusiastic spring cleaners, donning rubber gloves and tackling the oven is still one of the most loathed household chores. If people are not thorough with their oven cleaning, fat and food can cause future problems, which could result in an oven fire.

Paul said: "It's really important to not forget the oven when spring cleaning - behind its door will be a build up of dirt and grease from continual use throughout the winter that will not only affect its efficiency, but could be a potential fire hazard!"

"As outside temperatures plummeted during the winter many people turned to their ovens for hot wholesome meals, but the more you use your oven the more debris and grease can start to build up and this can affect its efficiency."

The Ovenu valeting process involves dismantling key components of an oven such as the door, interior panels, fan and shelves and placing them into design-registered equipment, which uses non-caustic products to clean the oven parts.

Paul adds: "Taking the time to get your house in order can be a very satisfying experience, but when it comes to cleaning the oven, most people would rather close the door and put it to the back of their minds!"

By regularly cleaning and maintaining an oven, it will ensure it performs at its best and even help prolong its life, and not need to replace it as often."

The whole process takes around three hours and leaves the oven, hob and exterior in immaculate condition. Ovenu is accredited by the British Accreditation Bureau to ISO 9001 and all cleaning products used by Ovenu are environmentally friendly, bio-degradable and conform to the latest government REACH regulations. Ovenu's Carbon Remover is also approved by the Vitreous Enamel Association.

Use the power of the sun!

LYMM based Solar Panel Installation Company Solar Fair say there are still thousand of pounds to be earned through Government grant schemes, together with free energy to be generated by using the sun's power.

Despite the much publicised and much criticised changes to the Government Grant Schemes over recent months there are still £1000's that can be earned through these grant schemes, as well as free energy and helping to conserve the earth's natural resources.

Solarflair are fully accredited and approved under the Microgeneration Certification Scheme to install Solar Panels to generate Hot Water and Electricity.

This means their customers can qualify for the following Government Grant Schemes:

The Feed in Tariff - Customers are paid £0.21 for every KWH their system generates, plus £0.031 per KWH for 1/2 of this which is assumed is fed back to the grid, plus they benefit from all the free electricity generated.

This means that a 4KWH system that will cost around £7500 will be expected to generate cash and electricity savings totalling nearly £1000 in the first year, which will increase each year as the scheme is index linked for its full 25 year lifetime. Also with constantly rising energy bills then the savings will be even greater in the future.

Therefore the system can be paid off in 8 years with over 17 years of Profit.

Solar Thermal Hot Water Heating Systems

The Renewable Heat Incentive - Customers will be paid in a similar fashion to the FIT for all the hot water generated and used. Therefore customers will benefit from free hot water as well as being paid by the government for every drop they use. Although the rate has yet to be set, we expect that with systems costing from £3000 - £6000 (depending upon their size) then these could be paid of in around half of the 20 year lifetime of the scheme.

Please call Solarflair your local installer on 01925 753795 or 07947 211733.

Pop not their cup of tea!

LYMM WI's monthly meeting opened with a welcome for two new members and a visitor and the announcement that the quiz team were runners up at the County Quiz.

Unfortunately the pop music category was not their cup of tea but as the highest scoring loser they will be going through to the final.

Spring is in the air as the gardening group are off to the garden centre for inspiration for spring hanging baskets and the rambling group off to Higher Whitley. A film night has been arranged for the showing of Gosford Park including choc ices, tea and biscuits. Mr Willie Sarson was the speaker for the night on the topic of crystal dowsing.

This was a great success as members all managed to learn the basics and had great fun.

Top honour for Rotarian Don

ROTARIAN Don Smith has been presented with Rotary's highest award in recognition of his community service.

Don has given many years of "Service before Self" to the Rotary Club of Lymm and has always been keen to work for the local community.

One of his "specialities" is to MC the Rotary club's Senior Citizens' Party so it was fitting that at this year's party Rotary Club President, John Beard, recognised Don's service by presenting him with a Paul Harris Fellowship. Apart from the party Don served on the club's Community Service committee for many years.

He spent a lot of time maintaining the old Christmas float and trailer. When the trailer failed its MOT after 36 years' service he was part of a small team which spent three months transfixing the old float onto the new trailer.

Outside of Rotary he was involved with the small group of volunteers who, for more than two years, completely gutted and refurbished the Lymm Community Centre and Youth Club. On a Thursday, together with his wife, Joyce, he provides breakfasts for the Market Traders and shoppers at the community centre where they also organise a monthly social for senior citizens, including a tea - and all free of charge.

For many years Don was a local Scout Leader.

Farm appeal is upheld

A PLANNING inspector has upheld an appeal against the refusal of planning permission for a change of use of an agricultural building at Camsley Grange Farm, Camsley, Lymm.

He has ruled the building can be used for window manufacturing, as a base for a building firm and for the storage of ice cream vans.

Borough council planners originally refused permission for the change, against the advice of their officers.

The inspector has ruled that re-use of the building is appropriate in the Green Belt and that there is no evidence that the change would cause any significant increase in traffic entering and leaving the site, nor any serious impact on highway safety.

Senior citizens get in the swing

MORE than 130 invited guests attended the annual Senior Citizens Party organised by the Rotary and Inner Wheel clubs of Lymm at Statham Lodge.

Alison Hawley, President of the Inner Wheel club, welcomed all the guests and John Beard, President of the Rotary club added his welcome and thanked Alison and all the Inner Wheel ladies for their part in the organisation of the party.

He went on to add that the Rotary club was celebrating its 75th birthday and so far as he could detect this party has been a regular event for 73 of those years.

The trio of Sandy and Geoff Clough and Brian Roberts, a Folk Singing/Musical group from Warrington called "Sixpenny Cut" - the name comes from a pathway that split the old Ryland's wire plant in two

- got the afternoon's entertainment off to a great start. The group give all their proceeds to the Warrington Community Care Group to help people with mental health problems.

They were followed by the traditional games of bingo and then a superb afternoon tea prepared by the Inner Wheel club members.

The afternoon closed with Swing Singer, Wayne Allen, giving an accomplished show called "Sounds of the Crooners" who performed the songs of Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and songs from the 1950's and 60's which got the whole audience singing and swinging.

All the party-goers left with the gift of a potted primrose.

Fisherman turns hobby into business

FISHERMAN Rick Keating has turned his hobby into his business opening Bridgewater Tackle in the heart of Lymm village.

Rick said: "I have been fishing most of my life, from float fishing on the Bridgewater Canal with my dad when I was knee high to a grass hopper, through to taking up carp fishing when I was at school.

"I try to go fishing once a week, but since planning the shop this has been somewhat limited! Annually I fish with my fishing partner in the British Carp Angling Championships and this year in June we will be hoping to go far in the competition. Our best position to date is the Semi-finals, but hopefully we can reach the final this year!"

Rick's new fishing shop is ideally situated for anglers fishing on Lymm Dam, Meadow View fishery and the surrounding Bridgewater Canal.

Stocking a range of the biggest angling equipment manufacturers, Bridgewater Tackle caters for anglers of any age and experience.

Council outlines plans for Diamond Jubilee celebrations

FOLLOWING a public consultation held in Lymm Village Hall the Parish Council has decided to lend its support to a number of ideas to celebrate and commemorate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee this year.

Parish Council Chairman David Openshaw, who organised the consultation, would like to thank the many people who attended the meeting for their enthusiasm and creativity in proposing such a wide range of interesting and imaginative ideas.

To commemorate the year, the council is backing four permanent memorials in the village.

Firstly the Parish Council will be funding an improvement to the area around The Cross in the village centre, including a re-paving of the area around the flag-pole. It is their intention to include engraved stonework commemorating the Jubilee.

They have also approved funding for a decorative Jubilee Fountain in the Lower Dam. This was a suggestion by one of the Deputy Lieutenants of Cheshire, Geoff Hawley.

The council has also agreed to support the designation of a Jubilee Walk from the Upper Dam, through The Dingle to the Village Centre. This will involve adding the finishing touches to the Jubilee Arch (pictured) at the top of the Dingle in the form of a Crown and Jubilee year, refurbishing the railings around the arch and improving the pathway through to the village.

Finally, the council intend to support tree planting in Ridgway Grundy Park. It is hoped that this will also include a Jubilee Oak.

As regards celebrations on the Jubilee Weekend itself starting on Saturday June 2, the Parish Council will be supporting the lighting on the Monday evening of a beacon in a prominent village location in order to include Lymm in the National Chain of beacons.

Although the council won't be organising an official firework display over the weekend, they are sure many Lymm residents will want displays of their own which they hope could all be co-ordinated.

The Queen is due to light her beacon on the Monday June 4 at 10:30pm and this would be an ideal time for everyone to commence their private displays.

Benjamin Selwood has volunteered to set up a Lymm in Bloom Committee, which will be co-ordinating with the other flower organisations in Lymm to ensure that the weekend is celebrated in Bloom. The Parish Council has agreed to provide funding.

A great idea from Roger Spurling of Lymm Photographic Society involves creating a "Dawn to Dusk" photographic record of the day and publishing this as a book or calendar. In a similar vein Lynn Shaw will be organising a Kids Jubilee Art and Photo competition with a view to holding a display at the May Queen Festival the week after. The Parish Council fully support these initiatives.

Finally the council is aware that many Lymm residents will be thinking of holding street parties over the weekend, but may be put off by the thought of the large amounts of regulation and "red tape" often involved in the organisation of such events.

The Government is actively encouraging a reduction in red tape for the Jubilee, and that smaller street parties involving residents and neighbours are able to be held without special insurance, formal risk assessments, licences or lengthy applications for contractor run road closures. Further details of how to organise a street party and guidance on regulations can be found on the Communities and Local Government website: www.communities.gov.uk/publications/communities/streetpartyguide

The Parish Council will also be pleased to help with any queries or "red tape" problems that you may encounter in the arrangement of your street party.

Katy is inspired to tackle first marathon

LYMM woman Katy O'Connor is taking part in the iconic Virgin London Marathon as part of a unique charity running team to raise awareness and funds for the most common cancers in men and women.

First time marathon runner Katy, aged 49 of The Crescent, was inspired to join TeamPB – a team of runners that has pledged to raise vital money for The Prostate Cancer Charity and Breast Cancer Care – and take on the epic 26.2 mile race across London on Sunday April 22 after deciding to complete a marathon before her 50th birthday.

Katy has been personally affected by both prostate cancer and breast cancer. "My mother died of breast cancer when she was only 69 and my brother has been living with terminal prostate cancer for the past two years, so TeamPB seemed to be the perfect charity to run for."

She said: "I started running last year and I've had a couple of injuries that have slowed me down but I'm back on track and my training's going really well. This is going to be the toughest challenge of my life but I'm aiming for a time around 4.5 hours. I've pledged to raise £2,012 and friends and family have been really generous, but any additional support would be really appreciated." Donations can be made through

More than 640 people have so far pledged to take on the 26.2 mile run as part of TeamPB, to support people affected by prostate and breast cancer and raise more than £1 million for the challenge.

The two charities – which are working to improve the lives of the 750,000 people living with the most common cancers in men and women in the UK – were chosen as the first joint official partner of Virgin London Marathon to raise awareness of these diseases, as well as vital funds for support services and research.

Also limbering up to take on the Virgin London Marathon, Owen Sharp, Chief Executive of The Prostate Cancer Charity, said: "It's great that Katy has decided to take on this iconic race in support of TeamPB and pound the streets of London to raise vital funds for the 750,000 people living with prostate and breast cancer in the UK. It is a huge challenge to complete a marathon, but I hope that by knowing she is running alongside more than 600 hundred other TeamPB runners, it will make crossing that finish line just that little bit easier for Katy."

Samia al Qadhi, Chief Executive of Breast Cancer Care, added: "We're extremely grateful to Katy for all the hard work she has put into her training and fundraising so far. Every penny raised will make a huge difference to the lives of people affected by breast and prostate cancer and allow us to be there for more and more people.

We wish Katy lots of luck and we'll be cheering her on along the route!"

Survey reveals potential for energy savings

BIG savings on household energy bills are being identified during a survey of properties at Lymm.

The survey is being carried out by "green" group Low Carbon Lymm, funded by the Government's Local Energy Assessment Fund (LEAF).

Energy assessor Nick Ormesher said: "In typical 1960s semi-detached bungalows, for example, we have identified savings of between £200 and £400 per year through measures such as better insulation, more efficient boilers and low energy lighting.

"We are also finding examples of properties which have already achieved high standards of energy efficiency and can be used as examples to others".

LEAF project manager Richard Pearce said: "You can request your free energy survey by calling 01925 754480 or by emailing us at info@lowcarbonlymm.org.uk and you will also receive a free Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) worth up to £90 which is valid for 10 years and is required if you sell or let your home.

"We have to complete the surveys by the end of March so please get in touch as soon as possible."

Also under the LEAF project, a "walk round survey" has been undertaken by Low Carbon Lymm volunteers to identify the different house types, ages and locations of more than 5,000 properties in Lymm and to provide the basis for an energy savings map of the village. This will be on view at a Low Carbon Lymm event on Saturday March 24 at the Lymm Youth and Community Centre between 1.30pm and 4pm.

Efficient

The free event will include information and advice on how to achieve energy savings and there will be a free prize draw for a wide range of energy efficient appliances such as an LED TV and eco-kettle. There will also be a range of activities for children including a competition to design an energy efficiency house and badge making.

Anyone interested in finding out more about the group, or with questions on energy saving, local food, recycling or other low carbon topics can email info@lowcarbonlymm.org.uk or check out the website www.lowcarbonlymm.org.uk

Who is TailorMade Group?

Calling on 35 years of collective experience in the financial services industry, Alistair Burns and Robert Shaw formed TailorMade Financial Solutions in 2003. The company was set up to provide Clients with trusted advice in all areas of traditional financial planning.

TailorMade Group was later formed to incorporate the connected companies, which currently include TailorMade SIPP Ltd and TailorMade Alternative Investments Ltd, as well as TailorMade Financial Solutions.

Collectively the group employs a focused and professional team of over 20 people who provide a wealth of experience within the financial services sector. Our team provide a first class service to Clients and over 100 Industry Partners.

We pride ourselves on providing Clients and Industry Partners with a comprehensive range of products and services in a professional and transparent manner.

Our Company Objective

"To inform, encourage and assist clients to take control of, and responsibility for, their savings and retirement planning needs, by providing products and services that they want, in a fair and transparent manner."

Unlock the power of your pension funds...

- Do you have any preserved pension arrangements?
- Would you like to decide where your pension fund is invested?
- Would you like all your funds in one place?
- Would you like the option to put your funds into a wider variety of Investments?
- Would you like a more proactive service from your pension provider?
- Have you been dissatisfied with your current pensions performance?
- Are you concerned about having enough income when your time comes to retire?

If you answered yes to any of the above questions.

It's time to act...

We can help you unlock the power of your pension funds by showing you how a SIPP can help your retirement planning strategy.

What is a SIPP?

SIPP stands for Self Invested Personal Pension.

Arguably the most prominent pension success story in recent years has been the popularity of the SIPP. SIPPs have grown in popularity despite traditional pensions hitting the headlines for usually the wrong reasons. A SIPP is a form of personal pension scheme which gives you:

- CONTROL: YOU Decide where YOUR money is invested
- CONSOLIDATION: Transfer ALL your preserved pensions into ONE place
- DIVERSIFICATION: Invest in asset classes of YOUR choice
- SERVICE: On-going service YOU deserve from YOUR pension provider
- TRANSPARENCY: ONE easy to understand charging structure
- PERFORMANCE: YOU are dissatisfied with the performance of YOUR current pension provider arrangements

TailorMade SIPP Limited is a local independent financial advisory company whose sole purpose is to offer advice on the merits of moving preserved pension schemes into a SIPP.

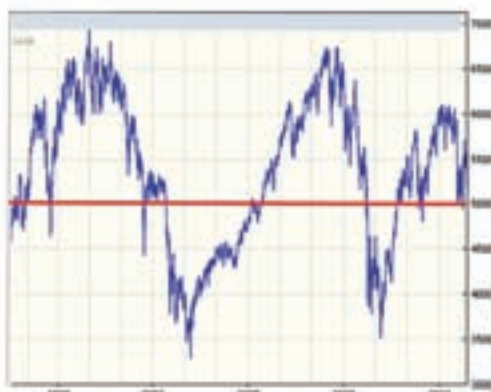

As a company we are authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority (FSA) and as such we are obliged to follow their strict principles of practice and enforce the standards they set within their Rules and Guidance to ensure the advice we give to our clients is in their best long term interests.

TailorMade SIPP Ltd would urge anyone considering transferring preserved pension funds from their current arrangement(s) to a SIPP (or any other pension contract) to obtain professional advice from a qualified IFA (Independent Financial Adviser) before doing so.

TailorMade SIPP Limited is authorised and regulated by the FSA. The purpose of this leaflet is to provide generic information & should not be interpreted as a personal recommendation or advice.

There are four major impacts to your savings and retirement planning. Stock Market Performance, Interest Rates, Inflation rates and Annuity Rates. Over the past 15 years, traditional savings and pension funds have been negatively affected by the performance of the Stock Market and management charges. In addition, the amount your pension fund can now buy in the form of an annuity has also reduced dramatically. The charts below highlight these points.

TailorMade
ALTERNATIVE INVESTMENTS

Part of the TailorMade group of companies, TailorMade Alternative Investments was launched to cater for the growing demand for alternative investments to play an increasing part in Client's investment and retirement planning strategies.

Due to the perceived lack of value for money (i.e. performance achieved in relation to charging structures) and the prospect of low interest rates for the foreseeable future, classic fund based pension and investments are fast becoming a thing of the PAST.

TailorMade Alternative Investments open doors to new investment opportunities providing Clients with DIRECT access to a DIVERSE portfolio of alternative investments, rather than through traditional fund based routes. This cuts out some of the associated costs and can help provide true diversification in a variety of asset classes, stabilising an investment portfolio in volatile times.

Within this ever changing economic landscape, both private and institutional investors strive to identify the best sectors and niches in which to invest their FUTURE.

Golf club gets in the swing of fundraising!

GOLFERS from High Legh Park clubbed together to raise an impressive £11,500 for local children's charity, The Children's Adventure Farm Trust.

Men's Captain John Caslin and Lady Captain Carol Robinson, both chose the children's charity to benefit from their year in charge.

Throughout the year they worked tirelessly to fundraise and support the local charity, staging several amazing fundraising events at the club. These included two fantastic fashion shows, a Ladies Night and the annual Captains Charity Day, which raised a massive £4,500! An Auction of Promises also raised £4,500 which saw 32 fantastic lots going under the hammer, ranging from Christmas cakes to Villas in Portugal.

All funds raised by the golfers will benefit terminally ill disabled and disadvantaged children from all over the North West. The charity will use the donation to provide holidays, respite breaks and daytrips to children in desperate need of a break at their beautiful 10 acre Cheshire site.

Julie Gray, Community Fundraiser at CAFT said: "We are so grateful to both the Captain and Lady Captain and everyone at High Legh Park Golf Club for their amazing support. They have worked so hard to raise such a fantastic amount of money which will change the lives of so many children, we really can't thank everyone enough."

Gavin Beddow, Director of Golf at High Legh Park added: "High Legh Park is proud to be involved with helping Carol and John raise such a fantastic amount of money for an amazing Charity. They have been very proactive in organising fund raising functions and events at High Legh, with unwavering energy and commitment. This has resulted in great participation, attendance and enjoyment in all the events held."

Both Carol and John have said that they were overwhelmed by the support that they had been given during their year as Captains and would like to thank everyone for their kind donations for this worthwhile local children's charity."

Carol Robinson, Lady Captain, presents CAFT fundraiser Julie Gray with a cheque for £11,500 during a recent visit to the Adventure Farm.

Richard, who created the London-Lymm exhibition at last year's Lymm Festival has started a new photo collaging venture.

Explaining his new Lymm Photo Art business Richard said: "Many of us will have countless collections of cherished, unseen photographs which we would love to put on the walls, however often only one image is chosen from 80 holiday snaps.

"You no longer have to make such difficult choices, as at Lymm Photo Art we will take all 80 images and skillfully hand blend them into a surreal crafted piece of unique photo collaged canvas art specifically based around your photos and your theme. We offer a more sophisticated approach to multi-picture canvas printing by creating one off canvas art works.

Richard added: "As an art based studio, its quite exciting, you never know what collections of photos will turn up next. Each collection naturally has an aesthetic theme i.e. family shots on holiday, a birthday, favourite football team, hen nights, even a whole wedding which had 450 images over a 5 metre long split canvas.

"Initially I never truly know what the final collage will look like until I have spent a few hours absorbing myself into the patterns, images, expressions and characters of the images.

"Once we have a real appreciation for the clients requests, themes and their images, the collaging process can begin and we have alot of fun and energy invested into creating each one.

He recently had a request consisting of 30 Facebook sized images of a wedding in Las Vegas which was themed in the style of Elvis.

"The first thing to do was pop on 'Viva Las Vegas' on the sound system and get into the spirit of the collage which finally became an A2 sized print with lots of fun shots of their great day."

This was followed by BCM-Planet Dance DJ Jon Besant with some really funky images of him playing the many great nights in Majorca at one of the World's largest night clubs.

Examples of work can be seen at the website www.lymmphotoart.com

Sarah's World Cup dream comes true

VETERAN hockey star Sarah Impey, who last year achieved her ambition of representing her country after 34 years in the sport, has seen another dream come true.

She has been chosen for the 20-strong England squad for the Masters World Cup, to be played in Canterbury in August.

Sarah, from Lymm, said: "It took me 34 years to get selected for England - albeit the Over 45s team.

"Now in less than a year I have played in four internationals and been selected for the World Cup squad."

Last year, Sarah played against Wales - scoring the only goal in a 1-0 victory - Ireland and Scotland. She also played for the England Lionesses - a team of Over 45s and Over 50s.

This year she hopes to play for the Over 45s England team again, in June in addition to the World Cup - and of course she'll be turning out for Timperley in the Cheshire Women's League

Sarah has to meet all her own expenses to play for her country and is sponsored by her dad, Lymm Royal British Legion veteran Ray Massey, and local councillors Sheila and Neville Woodyatt.

But she would like more sponsors and anyone who can help out should call her on 07811 907750.

Residents call for traffic calming

MORE than 30 residents have signed a petition calling for traffic calming, or a Pelican crossing, in High Legh Road, Lymm.

Householders in High Legh Road and adjacent Park Road say speeding traffic is a major road safety hazard.

Petition organiser Paul Thompson said that in view of the borough council's decision to establish 20mph zones in residential roads around the borough, he was intrigued as to why High Legh Road, at its Broomedge end, has a 40mph limit.

He said: "The area is residential on one side of the road."

Mr Thompson has raised the issue with Lymm Parish Council and with the borough council.

He said many children and elderly residents were afraid to cross High Legh Road, near the Costcutter shop, because of the traffic speeds.

"In an extreme case, there is an 80-plus resident who has lived in the area for the last 60 years, who feels the road is no longer safe enough for her to cross it to collect her pension from the post office.

"Essentially, the borough council will not consider changing the speed limit as there have been no reported accidents in the last three years.

"This is worrying as it clearly indicates that until someone is injured or killed no preventative actions can be taken.

"Local residents have expressed concerns that the speed of drivers on High Legh Road. Many drivers do not even observe the 40mph limit! Many family pets have been killed on the road including my own."

Mr Thompson said the borough council had told him the design of the road would require altering to provide a layout suitable for a 30mph limit and the council was not in a position to fund this in the present climate.

"I understand this to mean that Warrington Borough Council is unwilling or unable to allocate funding to place speed controls along the residential stretch of High Legh Road.

"In the event of someone being injured or killed, would the council therefore have to answer a case of reckless irresponsibility?"

Hazel puts her life in pictures

LYMM resident Hazel Hughes celebrates the daily challenge of taking 365 consecutive pictures on life sharing social media platform www.blipfoto.com.

She first heard about blipfoto through friends who had attached the blipfoto app to their Facebook wall. Hazel had a look at the site, liked what she saw and decided to sign up.

That was 365 days ago and she hasn't missed a day since!

Hazel said, "I saw links to my good friends blipfoto journal popping up on my newsfeed on facebook, and was just so moved to see how beautifully and honestly she was capturing the daily goings on of her little family, from the mundane to the spectacular - giving importance to the little details that would so often be forgotten. Being a new mother myself, I felt totally inspired by the concept."

"I am an artist but since becoming a Mum I have struggled to find the time to express my creative side. The idea of 'one photo a day' seemed just about do-able, and I loved the fact that I would be expressing my creativity whilst simultaneously building up a journal of these precious years while my little boy is so young and changing so fast."

"I actually started this daily pursuit during a period of illness. It was nothing life-threatening, but for around 5 months it was bad enough to make everyday life with a small child very challenging. During March of last year, my health started to pick up just a little bit, and I started using the time that my son was in nursery to pull myself out of bed and look for things to photograph. When he came home in the afternoon I'd capture a little precious moment to summarise our day."

"The Daily Photo became a huge motivator; actually, it was an answer to prayer. Just one daily photo - that was the general idea, and that simple motivation alone was enough to pull me out of the pit and fill me with optimism again. As I started to feel better and better, I took great joy in being able to sling my camera over my shoulder and snap away every day, capturing all of the little adventures that I shared with my son each day. I've always liked to keep a journal but have never managed to do it consistently. The beauty of journaling photographically is that I can fit it in to whatever time I have."

"I didn't take a daily photograph before joining blipfoto. I have had phases of writing every day or sketching every day, but have never managed to keep it up consistently for a whole year! This is a real achievement for me, this 365 days-worth of photographs, and it has shown me that I am capable of being disciplined with my creativity in a way that I never believed I could."

"For me, using blipfoto has been a magical, captivating and addictive way of documenting a whole year of our family's journey. Taking 365 photographs has shown me new ways to look, and it's given me a reason - permission if you like - to do something a little bit creative every single day."

Blipfoto invites anyone to join a community of thousands who document and share their daily lives with others around the globe.

Started in 2004 as the personal online photo journal of Edinburgh photographer and designer Joe Tree, Blipfoto.com has grown steadily - through word of mouth alone - into a worldwide phenomenon that connects people from all walks of life.

The simple and addictive concept is based on uploading just one new photo - taken that very day - to your journal. Some people do this every day and others as often as they can. Contributors are now spread across 160 countries, and the website receives more than 13million page views per month from 160,000 visitors.

Says Joe Tree, founder and CEO, Blipfoto, "Blipfoto is social media for people that don't know they're engaging in social media. It's a unique community where people share their lives through pictures and words with online friends from all over the world."

Blippers include photography enthusiasts, students, young mums, retirees, sea captains, chefs, foodies, birders, journal keepers, singers, authors, media correspondents, charity workers, politicians and creatives.

Sophie gets on her bike for charity

SOPHIE Hopkinson, who spends most of her time running The Terrace restaurant in Lymm with her Mum, Joanne, will be taking a four-day break in June - to cycle 310-miles from London to Paris.

Her aim is to raise at least £1,600 for the British Heart Foundation and she is doing the ride in memory of her Grandma, Peggy Hopkinson, who died from a heart condition.

She will be doing the ride with Claire Clayton, also from Lymm.

Sophie, aged 25, is already in training for the trip, cycling up to 35 miles a day four times a week and also building up her strength at Pele's Gym in Altrincham, where she already trains as a Thai boxer.

It will be the first time she has taken part in a cycle marathon, although she has done a couple of Moon Walks in London, with her Mum, to raise money for breast cancer research.

Sophie can be sponsored at The Terrace where she is also putting on a special evening on Saturday, April 21 to raise money for the charity. There will be a hog roast, sangria and a "boogie" from 7pm until late. Again, tickets are available at The Terrace.

Celebrating Arts Week

PUPILS at Cherry Tree Primary School, Lymm got busy with paints and brushes to celebrate "Arts Week."

Every child in the school was involved in the project which resulted in nine colourful pictures which are now on display in the school's reception area.

Various parts of school life were reflected in the pictures, which have won praise from parents and other visitors to the school.

Another notch on the awards post

THE Audi A1 has earned another notch on its awards post by being named Best Luxury Small Car of the Year by CarBuyer's expert panel of road testers and reviewers.

Editor-in-chief of CarBuyer, Steve Fowler, explained: "The Audi A1 continues to be the best luxury small car for CarBuyer users. It's posh, but not too pricey, while running costs are super low. We love the way it looks, the way it drives and the quality for the cash is unbeatable."

The judges also highlighted the A1's "sleek good looks and an incredibly upmarket cabin" and build quality. The arrival of the more versatile five-door Sportback version means the A1 is now as practical as it is desirable.

It's the A1's second award this year and also its second consecutive CarBuyer award.

Prices for the A1 start from £13,420 OTR (1.2 TFSI 86PS SE model) and go to £21,810 OTR for the top of the range 1.4 TFSI 185PS Black Edition model.

'A great feeling' - being second best in Cheshire!

THEY say nobody remembers the runners-up in a cup final - but don't believe it!

The Year 6 boys team at Oughtrington Primary School narrowly lost in the final of the Cheshire schools football competition - and they certainly haven't forgotten

it. Captain Elliott Baines said: "To be called the second best primary school footy team in Cheshire is a great feeling."

The Oughtrington team

The boys' success story started last October when they won the Lymm cluster tournament, winning every game and beating the Oughtrington Year 5 boys 1-0 in the final.

Successful

This qualified them to enter the Warrington primary schools finals held at Warrington Town in November, where they were again successful winning through on a penalty shootout to qualify them for the regional finals, along with Barrow Hall Primary from Great Sankey.

The regional finals were held at Crewe Alexander football academy when the boys played against all the other Cheshire teams that qualified and won all their games in their group.

They then won the semi final 1-0 to play Barrow Hall in the final.

The two Warrington teams had, between them, beaten all the other Cheshire teams.

It was a close final, with Barrow Hall winning 1-0, despite excellent play by the Oughtrington youngsters.

The team consisted of Elliott Baines (capt), Sam Eaton, William Bennett, Josh Davies, Joel Davies, Oliver Paterson, Adam Bishop ('keeper) Matthew O'Brien, Morgan Smith and Callum Donley.
