WHILE we have been advised "not to panic" over the proposed High Speed Rail (HS2) network destined to be built in twenty years time we have less than 12 months to raise our concerns.

The impact on Lymm may be minimal but it certainly won't be on some of our neighbours.

Having studied the draft plans in more detail I have seen it ploughing through some business premises only a few miles from Lymm, which will have a devastating impact on that areas local economy.

I know the saying "You can't stand in the way of progress" but I do really wonder whether the Whitehall experts actually take everything into consideration when drawing up their plans.

While many of us may not be taking too much notice of these proposals - due to the fact they are 20 years down the line - we should not become too complacent.

While they may only be draft proposals if we don't raise our concerns soon, the damage could be done further down the line.

Meanwhile closer to home we are fast approaching Easter and the annual Lymm Duck Race, organised by the Lymm Roundtable.

This excellent event attracts hundreds of people into the village centre on Easter Monday and most importantly helps raise thousands of pounds for local good causes.

Congratulations to everyone involved in organising this fantastic event and Lymm Life is delighted to be a Super Duck sponsor.

Keep up the good work!

Speed warnings

FLASHING speed signs warning motorists if they exceed the speed limit may appear on Lymm's main roads in the near future - for a short time.

Lymm Parish Council has asked the borough council if they can borrow some signs for a time.

Christian aims to scale new heights for charity

LYMM resident Christian Le Louet is set to scale new heights as part of an intrepid group of trekkers aiming to raise funds for local children's charity the Adventure Farm Trust.

On October 4 he will join a group of brave supporters of the charity to travel to the Himalayas to trek to Everest Base Camp to raise vital funds for terminally ill, disabled and disadvantaged children from all over the North West.

So far the charity has recruited 23 trekkers to take part in this challenge and have been forced to set a limit of 25, they expect the last two places to go pretty soon. Average group size for this trek usually peaks at around 10/15 trekkers making this one of the largest treks to this remote Himalyan outpost, hopefully raising almost £40,000 for the charity.

Christian, (pictured right and on the front cover) a 37-year-old father of one from Lymm said: "Having recently had my first child, Evie, I have reflected on my life and how other people are not so lucky. By no means are we rich but we have a very comfortable life and myself and wife have been blessed with a wonderful daughter. I decided to try to help children who have not been so lucky. CAFT is a local charity and I was really impressed with all the staff I have met and was inspired to help. I did my first project last April, the Cheshire challenge a 40 miles walk across Cheshire which we completed in about 13 hrs. CAFT then approached me re Everest base Camp."

"I am very lucky to work for my current employer, Evolution Recruitment Solutions, who have fully backed me in terms of allowing me to take nearly a month off work, doubling any money I raise for charity and giving me an extra days holiday to aid with training. I am hitting the gym hard in order to lose weight and get fit, along with Paul Walsh my personal trainer I aim to be a lean mean machine to make the trip of a life time".

The group will trek to a height of 5,545m over 13 days, dealing with extreme cold, basic living conditions and altitude. They will climb to a height equivalent to four times that of Britain's highest peak, Ben Nevis.

Jenny O'Hare and Helen Crowther from the Adventure Farm have also committed to the challenge and are calling for supporters old and new to join them. In the past they have tackled treks along the Great Wall of China, through the Grand Canyon, Sahara Desert and through the rainforest of Costa Rica. Between them they have raised over £130,000 for local terminally ill, disabled and disadvantaged children.

Each participant must raise a minimum of £2,995. For further information about the trek, contact Jenny in the fundraising office on 01565 830 053, or visit the trek's website www.caft.co.uk/challenge/everest-base-camp

More on the bill for this year's Duck Race

LYMM Duck Race is set to return on Easter Monday (April 1) with organisers Lymm and District Round Table promising it will be bigger and better than ever.

The popular annual event takes place in Lymm village, with the race beginning at 12.30pm.

This year, there will be an additional "Easter Food Fest" on Henry Street car park - next to the youth and community centre - comprising a range of stalls offering food to eat on the day or to take home.

This new feature, along with all the customary children's entertainment, will be open from 10.30am.

Round Table spokesman Steve Liput said: "The Duck Race continues to be a well-supported community event and this year we thought we'd try and offer even more for people."

"Hopefully the weather will be a little better than last year as there's nothing nicer than a packed village centre with the sun shining."

"We're looking for main event sponsors who will get great exposure before, during and after the event. Also new for this year, the owner of the winning super duck will be able to nominate a charity that we will donate £1,000 to, with £250 going to the charity of choice of the corporate duck winner too."

Racing duck tickets can be bought online at www.lymmduckrace.co.uk - normal duck tickets are priced at £1, with corporate ducks £30 and super ducks £60. The first normal racing duck over the line receives £100, second place £50 and third £25.

Alternatively, tickets are on sale by The Cross, Lymm, on the four Saturdays preceding Easter Monday and also on the day.

Anyone interested in sponsorship or with an idea for running a stall should contact Steve on 07795 262726 or sponsorship@lymmduckrace.co.uk

HS2 opponents to be invited to Lymm

A NATIONAL group opposed to construction of the HS2 high speed rail route is to be invited to make a presentation to a future meeting of Lymm Parish Council.

But local residents concerned about the impact of the rail link on the Lymm area have been advised not to panic.

The proposals so far announced are only in draft form and the definite line of the railway will not be announced until 2015.

Branches announce ipad winner

BRANCHES, the specialist home furniture retailer, held a free prize draw competition during December and January which was open to all visitors to the showroom, on Wilderspool Causeway, as well as those who visited their website www.branchesfurniturewarrington.co.uk

The picture shows the winners, Mr & Mrs Klaveness from Walton, who were presented with the latest iPad by Simon Ashwood, in the Branches store.

Branches specialise in solid wood furniture for the home and office and is a family run business serving the people of Warrington for 18 years.

At this time there will be a full public consultation.

The parish council hopes to organise a meeting with other parishes affected.

Draft proposals show HS2 passing to the east of Pickmere, to the west of junction 19 of the M6. It crosses over the M6 and then beneath the realigned A50 between High Legh and Bucklow Hill, before arriving at a junction south of the M56.

One branch of this junction, heads north, crossing beneath the M56 before crossing over the Bridgewater Canal to the east of Lymm, skirting Warburton to cross the Manchester Ship Canal at an elevated level around Hollins Green, continuing through parts of Croft and Culcheth and Lowton.

The second branch heads east to the north of Rositherne Mere and south of the M56 junction 8, then south of Ashley before crossing beneath the M56 around junction 6, with a new HS2 station serving Manchester Airport and the Airport City Enterprise Zone.

Love Food - hate waste!

THE Love Food Hate Waste campaign is a national campaign to help people make the most of the food they buy, helping to save money, reduce waste while enjoying food whilst it's still at it's best.

Did you know each year the average family with children wastes £680 on food that could have been eaten.

There are two main reasons why people throw food away, they cook or prepare too much, or they don't use it in time.

Check the dates on the food - the 'use-by' date is key in terms of food safety - never eat food after this date. However it can still be frozen right up until the 'use-by' date.

The 'Best before' date refers to quality and food can still be eaten after this date.

By planning meals, writing a shopping list, cooking the correct portion sizes, storing food correctly and cooking leftovers people can waste less food and save money.

The Love Food Hate Waste website has lots of useful information. Try the on-line portion calculator, get ideas on how to produce a meal, plan for the weeks ahead and get tips on how to make fruit and vegetables last longer.

There's even a recipe finder, so cooking with leftovers has never been tastier!

Missing piece from the jigsaw

JIGSAW enthusiast Keith Round has decided there's one piece missing from his hobby - what to do with the jigsaw after he has completed it.

Usually it ends up going to a charity shop - after spending a lengthy period hidden away in a cupboard.

Now the Lymm resident has come up with an idea to get more out of the pastime - a jigsaw "swap club".

He said: "You can spend £14 or £15 on a jigsaw so it is a bit frustrating to have to give it away.

"I was wondering if there are enough jigsaw enthusiasts around to start a club where people could meet up and swap jigsaws. It would certainly make them better value-for-money."

Anyone interested should contact Keith on 01925 754462.

Joe turns back t

PHOTOGRAPHS of old Lymm and tales of the village's past were enjoyed by members of Heatley WI when local historian Joe Griffiths (pictured left) was guest speaker.

Joe, from Lymm History Society, showed pictures of "fustian workers" from the 19th Century dressed in their heavy cloth clothes. Members heard how because of their hard life the workers often had dropped shoulders, calloused hips and a stooped back.

He also showed members scenes of how the village used to look with pictures of The Cross with and without its cock-vane, Pepper Street School, the old Rectory and people on a day trip to the races.

There were lots of questions so he

Council to study cost of Dingle improvements

LYMM Parish Council is to investigate the cost of carrying out improvements to the footpath from the Lower Dam through The Dingle.

But councillors have expressed disappointment that United Utilities - who own part of the land involved - have indicated they are not prepared to offer any financial support.

The council has thought for some time that the walkway from the Lower Dam should be improved to give more access to the area.

right) said: "All sorts of ideas have been put forward, including an observation platform from where people could see the waterfall and the stream.

"We approached United Utilities and they have agreed that we can carry out the improvements.

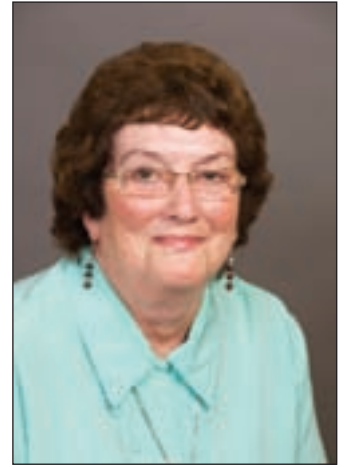

"But they are not prepared to give us any financial support, which is very disappointing.

"We are looking into the possibility of carrying out improvements, but clearly the cost is an issue. The work would have to be done properly - there would be health and safety issues.

"We couldn't have a situation where someone could fall into the stream.

"But it is very disappointing that a public utility company is not prepared to offer any help."

Motoring

Driving in the dark gets safer

THE new Volvo S60, V60 and XC60 - shown to the public for the first time at the Geneva Motor Show - can be fitted with an innovation that makes driving in the dark safer and more comfortable.

The renewed Active High Beam Control makes it possible to use high beam continuously thanks to an ingenious mechanism that prevents dazzling of oncoming drivers.

The aim of the Active High Beam Control technology is to enhance visibility in the dark by making it possible to use high beam permanently, without having to switch to low beam when meeting or catching up with other cars.

Advantage

The main advantage is that the traffic environment outside the shaded area is still illuminated by the high beam. This improves the driver's chances of detecting objects at the side of the road, such as parked cars, unprotected road users and animals.

When an oncoming car approaches or when catching up with another car from behind, the system helps to prevent dazzling of the other driver by shading out only as much of the beam as necessary.

Active High beam Control, which also works for motorcycles ahead, features Xenon lamps. The technology is active at speeds down to 15 km/h.

TailorMade for you...

Gold has always been of value. Early civilisations linked gold with their Gods and rulers for its beauty, rarity and power. And today, gold continues to have worth.

It wasn't until around 700 B.C. that the first money appeared in the form of gold coins, and as gold became widespread as an acceptance of currency, trade began to rely on coins for exchange rather than the bartering system of previous days.

Nowadays, we don't use gold as our standard currency, yet gold continues to have value...

However, there is a finite supply of gold in the market. And demand for gold is high.

The Central Banks, have been diversifying their liquid assets away from US Dollars into Gold. The Chinese Central Bank has said, 'We want a reserve currency. We are going to continue to accumulate gold.'

There is also increasing demand for gold as a personal asset, which in turn, determines the price of gold.

In the current economic climate, gold as an investment has grown in popularity. Historically, it has not been correlated to stock markets, property and other commonly held assets, so when these do badly, usually, gold performs well, acting like an insurance policy within your portfolio and whilst gold does not produce an income, it is a tangible asset.

All purchases of gold bullion are currently VAT exempt in the UK. All Gold coins, such as Sovereigns and Britannias are still technically considered to be legal tender and are therefore Capital Gains Tax free.

If you are interested in finding out more about investing in gold, please contact TailorMade Alternative Investments.

Please Note:

The value of Gold can go down in value as well as up, so you could get back less than you invest.

TailorMade Alternative Investments is not regulated by the UK Financial Services Authority and is not authorised to provide investment, tax or legal advice.

Parish to support chainsaw training

LYMM Parish Council has agreed to bear the cost of training a volunteer in the use of a chainsaw to enable maintenance work to be carried out in Spud Wood.

Cllr Pam Hunter gave the council a presentation on the work of the Friends of Spud Wood, who have the support of the Woodland Trust to carry out work to keep the developing woodland under control.

A supervisor is needed, trained to use a chainsaw, but training will cost £360. Once the group has a trained supervisor, however, they will be able to access other funding to look after the wood.

Restaurant backs Brainwave charity

A LYMM restaurant has chosen children's charity Brainwave, which has its regional office in Warrington, as its charity of the year.

Chef Aiden Byrne and his wife to be Sarah Broadley, of the Church Green, will be raising funds for the charity all year.

On May 14 there will be a charity Gourmet Evening at the restaurant. Tickets are available from the venue or by calling the reservations team on 01925 752068.

Aiden said: "By giving our time and resources, whilst reaching out to our customers to ask them to engage with our fundraising efforts, we know we will be able to help and support many families in the area, making a difference to their everyday lives."

Brainwave works with families to deliver individual, home-based therapy and exercises for children with disabilities and development delay, including Autism and Cerebral Palsy. Treatment can range from help with walking to recognising numbers.

The charity set up its third centre in Birchwood in 2009, which was formally opened by Brainwave's President, HRH The Countess of Wessex.

New funding to save money while keeping warm

AT least 800 older homes in Lymm could save money and keep their homes warm by benefiting from financial assistance towards the costs of insulation through the Green Deal and a new subsidy for solid wall insulation called the Energy Company Obligation (ECO).

Free energy assessments of older (pre-1930s) properties in Lymm, carried out on behalf of Low Carbon Lymm, are identifying energy savings from solid wall insulation ranging from around £100 to nearly £600 per year depending on the size and type of house. There are also benefits for properties where there is a need to repair or improve the appearance of external wall rendering or other finishes.

The Green Deal is a new way to pay for energy-saving home improvements, to combat rising energy costs and to make homes more comfortable. It lets you pay for some or all of the improvements over time through your electricity bill. Repayments will be no more than what a typical household should save in energy costs. Households can also benefit from a Cashback Scheme which could be worth over £1000 on a package of energy saving improvements. ECO funding is available for internal or external solid wall insulation of older properties as part of a Green Deal package or directly through energy suppliers.

The free Green Deal energy assessments are also identifying energy savings opportunities in newer properties through cavity wall, loft and floor insulation, boiler replacements and heating controls.

To find out more about the Green Deal and ECO and to book your free Green Deal Assessment, visit the LCL website: www.lowcarbonlymm.org.uk or phone Richard Pearce on 01925 754480. This offer is available until the end of March 2013 on a first-come, first-served basis.

Anglers acquire new fishing right

LYMM Angling Club has acquired the fishing rights of a four and-a-half mile stretch of the Bridgewater Canal, between Waterloo Bridge, Runcorn and Crawley's Bridge at Preston Bridge Marina.

The acquisition will give the club's 1,600 members access to first class waters which regularly yield big catches.

Secretary Andy Watson said: "We are delighted to have acquired these rights which we hope will bring us new members."

"Full members will be able to fish the canal, along with all our other waters, but we will be offering a £20-a-year membership to people who only want to fish this stretch."

In the past, the canal has attracted a minority of anglers who have caused problems, but Lymm Angling Club will be introducing high profile bailiffs to stamp out illegal fishing and anti-social behaviour.
