Editor's Comment

THE ongoing problem of car parking facilities in Lymm village is rearing its ugly head again - with fears that if new car parking charges proposed by Warrington Borough Council go ahead it could 'kill the village.'

The proposals involve reducing the free parking on Pepper Street from two hours to one, while also implementing a similar pay and display system on the Henry Street and Davies Way car parks.

While nobody likes paying car parking charges - we simply do not have enough parking spaces to cater for the village centre.

If there is no pay and display you end up with people parking all day, which in turn deters shoppers.

It is a fine balancing act.

If the Borough Council could retain the two hour free parking on ALL the village car parks, I believe it would achieve what is best for the village - plenty of free parking spaces for shoppers visiting the village.

Personally the system on Pepper Street has worked well for me during my visits to the village, although it is easy to have a senior moment and forget to get a ticket!

Problems

But there is one thing for sure - whatever system is introduced the general parking problems for the village centre will never completely go away for one simple reason - there aren't enough parking spaces!

Volunteers celebrate community asset transfer

VOLUNTEERS at Lymm Youth and Community Centre are celebrating after Warrington Borough Council unanimously approved a Community Asset Transfer of the centre to the local community on a 30 year lease.

Run entirely by volunteers from the local community the centre is self-sustaining without any regular income from the Local Authority and supports itself by fundraising and DIY maintenance by its volunteers. Its monthly meetings at 7.30pm on the 4th Tuesday of each month are open to everyone.

The centre organises several popular events staffed by its volunteers including monthly Farmers and Craft Markets, Senior Socials, Film Shows and weekly Young Peoples Club, Junior Club and Thursday Market Day Breakfasts. It provides a venue for outside groups such as Zumba, Street Dance, Slimming World, Stage School, Keep Fit, Budo and even private Birthday Parties to hire at competitive rates; and supports community groups such as Messy Church, Dornville Lodge, Indoor Bowls and Table Tennis, as well as playing a full part in local events such as Lymm May Queen, Lymm Festival, Lymm Dickensian Christmas etc.

Steve Griffiths, Chairman, said; "We are absolutely delighted at this news, but I must pay tribute to the dedication of former and continuing volunteers who kept the centre open through difficult times and helped achieve this result. The present administration has put its trust in us. We have shown that the centre is needed and sustainable. We now need the people and local organisations to ensure that the centre goes forward run by the community for the benefit of the community in Lymm and across the Borough."

Geraldine Reynolds, Treasurer of Lymm Youth and Community Association, said: "We would like to set on record our thanks and appreciation for the faith the Executive Committee of Warrington Borough Council has demonstrated in approving a Community Asset Transfer of Lymm Youth and Community Centre to the Association. Without formal regulation by the authorities, we have still strived for and achieved self-imposed high standards in line with national guidelines and procedures but now fully appreciate the commitment and legal responsibilities we have taken on in managing a publicly owned asset.

"We are determined to continue to maintain and develop the centre for the benefit of the community and to ensure its democratic management by the community. With a long secure lease we can now apply for grants and work towards improving the appearance of the building and hope now that we can attract more local volunteers to play their part in this new lease of life for this vital facility at the heart of the village."

Volunteer Su Williams said: "This gives us a wonderful opportunity, with the co-operation and support of Warrington Borough Council, to incorporate additional support services and provide a focal point for the people of Lymm, particularly those who are young, older, disabled or disadvantaged, but we hope also that our facilities will increasingly be available for people from across the borough. We hope too that our experience in developing our Community Asset Transfer Proposal and the necessary Policies and Procedures, which we are happy to share, might help other community organisations throughout the Borough to improve and develop community services for the benefit of the whole of Warrington."

Volunteers celebrate at the Town Hall.

Pre-school turning Japanese!

PART of a Lymm pre-school has been transformed into a Japanese Garden for children to enjoy a new cultural experience.

A pagoda, oriental wind chime, Japanese bridge, bamboo plants and a heron have been added to the garden at St Mary's Preschool, creating a special place where the children can run, make music and literally "talk Japanese".

Lynn Smith, the supervisor at St Mary's Preschool said: "We are fortunate to have a really active parent-led committee here. One of the parents came in and talked to the boys and girls about Japan. The children had fun trying on geisha dresses and outfits embellished with golden dragons. They looked at some Japanese symbols and even learnt a few words!"

"The children particularly loved finding out about Harry the Heron, why his beak and legs are so long, why he likes to "hang around" Japanese gardens, and what his favourite food is which, as we all know, is fish! Now they want to look out for Harry's real friends at the Lymm Dam which is next to our preschool."

The Japanese Garden is part of the pre-school's "Global Village" theme where children learn about the wider world.

Lynn added: "We think it's important to expose our children to other countries, cultures and ways of life and it builds on other areas we have explored with the children such as Chinese New Year, Indian Divali festival and an array of other cultural and religious events. We hope to create an African village or rainforest next, so watch this space!"

Parking charges could kill village

BOROUGH Council proposals to extend pay-and-display parking in Lymm have been met by dismay - and anger.

Traders, councillors and shoppers are opposed to crucial parts of the strategy - particularly extending charging to the Davies Way car park and cutting the free period at Pepper Street from two hours to one.

Transportation chiefs at the borough council say the changes are to improve the operation of the Lymm car parks. But they also admit they are to save money at a time of "severe budgetary constraints."

Cllr Sheila Woodyatt said: "The proposals have the potential to kill the village."

Cllr Ian Marks added: "I am disappointed with the proposals for Pepper Street - particularly charging for the second hour."

"I am very much opposed to charging on the Davies Way car park."

The borough's proposals, which would be implemented in the autumn, are:

Davies Way and Henry Street car parks: 0-1 hour: free; 1-2 hours: 50p; 2-3 hours: £1; 3 hours: £2. Pepper Street car park: 0-1 hour: free; 1-2 hours: 50p; 2-4 hours: £2; 4 hours: £10.

Help save the hedgehog from extinction

A charity fighting to save the hedgehog from extinction is in desperate need of funding.

Warrington Hedgehog Rescue, founded by Virginia Jones, believes the small, secretive animal could be extinct in the UK by 2025.

There was a decline of more than 20 per cent between 2001 and 2004.

Virginia said: "It is not an under-estimation to say that we have little over a decade to save the hedgehog."

But local residents now have an opportunity to help Virginia and the local hedgehog population - by having their ovens cleaned.

Warrington-based oven valeting business Ovenu will be donating five per cent of their fee to the charity during August.

Virginia said: "The charity is totally self-funded, so fundraising efforts such as Ovenu's are crucial to our survival."

"The work we are doing to save the species on the frontline is so valuable to their survival. If we can raise awareness of things that people can do, such as being more vigilant when they are using lawn mowers or strimmers in their gardens, avoiding laying slug pellets and ensuring that garden fences have spaces for our native mammals to pass under safely, then they will be helping to save the hedgehog."

Ovenu boss Paul Clark, 49, said: "I am delighted to be helping in some small way to make a big difference to the future of one of our most endangered native mammals. Aside from the money that will be generated, which is vital to the work Virginia and her team are doing, I hope that many more people will now be alerted to the plight of the hedgehog."

"The rescue centre is also appealing for urgent donations of cat and dog food, as this forms the staple diet of the rescued hedgehogs."

The Ovenu valeting process involves dismantling key components of an oven such as the door, interior panels, fan and shelves and placing them into design-registered tank equipment, which uses safe, non-caustic products to clean the oven parts. The whole process takes around three to four hours and leaves the oven, hob and exterior in immaculate condition.

For more information about Ovenu, or to make a booking with Paul, call: 01925 453377 or visit: www.ovenuwarrington.net

TailorMade for you...

Whether building your pension or considering retirement. Understand ALL your options...

TailorMade SIPP Limited are an independent financial advisory company whose sole purpose is to offer advice on the merits of moving preserved pension schemes into a SIPP (Self Invested Personal Pension)

A SIPP is a form of personal pension scheme which gives you the freedom to choose and manage your own investments. It's a pension vehicle for people who desire more control over their funds, allowing them to decide which investments are appropriate to them specifically (subject to certain HM Revenue and Customs restrictions) rather than their investments being managed within a pooled fund chosen by a third party.

We are completely independent, therefore we are not influenced by a corporate parent or network, which enables a wider audience to utilise our services to establish whether a SIPP is suitable for their retirement planning strategy.

We only provide limited advice and a SIPP may not be the appropriate option to consider.

As a company we are authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority (FSA number 506611) and as such are monitored strictly to ensure the advice we give to our clients is in their best long term interests. TailorMade SIPP Ltd would urge anyone considering transferring preserved pension funds from their current arrangement(s) to a SIPP (or any other pension contract) to obtain professional advice from a qualified Independent Financial Adviser before doing so.

Food Fest kick starts successful festival

LARGE crowds flocked into Lymm village centre for the annual Food Festival which kick started a varied programme of arts related activities.

Lymm Festival covered eleven days of varying entertainment, with the Food Fest seeing local restaurants and food establishments lining the streets offering meals and food tasting opportunities.

It also saw the unveiling of The Big Picture.

Another popular event was Art in the Garden where Su Williams displayed some art work made from unwanted specs which will be sent on later for use in Africa.

Two year old Jonah Ottiwell and his grandfather Mike Porter are also pictured listening to some relaxing accordion music provided by Sam Fletcher at Art in the Garden Leckonby Cottage, Whitbarrow Rd, Lymm.

Meanwhile nearly 250 packed into the Lymm Festival Marquee for the debut of the forty strong Lymm Big Sing Choir, formed specially for the festival.

The choir formed by Alan Williams and coached by Susan Healey had just three rehearsals to prepare for the performance.

Friends and relatives cheered as the choir knocked them out with Walking In Memphis, I Just Can't Stop Loving you and Could it Be Magic.

The evening was headlined by the fabulous Helen Monks Band in a concert titled "Natural Woman" and was supported by Alan Williams.

Eating dessert at the Lymm Food Festival are left, Hannah Collins and Molly Clark both aged 13.

Flavours fine Turkish cuisine team.

A new breed of car

IT'S the car with coupe looks, SUV style, MPV practicality and hatchback costs - and the Hyundai ix35 has attracted thousands of new buyers to the brand.

The ix35 has built on Hyundai's impressive SUV heritage, which has seen the company continually feature in the top five brands for such vehicles across Europe.

It's an entirely new breed of car, with an appeal reaching far beyond the conventional SUV sector.

The ix35 takes up the same amount of space on the road as a C-Segment hatchback and has prices to match. But despite the compact size, the ix35 can rival an MPV for practicality.

Boot space is impressive and there are plenty of family-friendly features to keep parents and children happy and comfortable.

Efficient

With a compelling line-up of powerful and efficient petrol and diesel engines, plus fuel saving technology such as Intelligent Stop & Go (ISG), the ix35 offers incredibly efficient fuel economy and low tailpipe emissions figures.

A dynamic chassis, with advanced multi-link rear suspension and a choice of two or four-wheel-drive drivetrains adds even further versatility and driver appeal, while advanced safety systems - including standard ESP (Electronic Stability Programme) on all models - make it the perfect choice of car for family buyers.

Priced from only £17,295 on-the-road, the ix35 range has equipment levels that no rival can even dream of matching.

Unlimited-mileage warranty

It comes with five years of unlimited-mileage warranty, five years of roadside assistance, and five years of vehicle health checks. A 10-year anti-perforation corrosion warranty is also provided, meaning that what appears attractive in the showroom will remain just as appealing for years to come.

Four weeks of road works

WORK is due to start on July 30 on resurfacing another stretch of the A56 at Lymm - Higher Lane, between Grammar School Road and Wildersmoor Farm.

The work is being carried out to coincide with the school holidays and will take about four weeks to complete.

Daily road closures will take place between 8.30am and 4.30pm, Monday to Friday.

In addition to the resurfacing work, a traffic island is to be installed between Woodland Avenue and Oughtrington Lane as part of an attempt to reduce speeds.

Raised bus boarding points will be constructed at existing bus stops and footway crossing points will be improved to make them safer for pedestrians.

Bus services will be diverted during the road closures but bin collections should be normal, although times may be different.

— Advertiser's announcement —

Story with a sting in the tail

IT'S the time of year when wasps appear in their millions - and for some their stings can be fatal.

A wasps' nest can often be in the loft space of a house, can be the size of a suitcase and can contain thousands of the insects. The colony grows throughout the summer.

Treatment involves an insecticide, specially formulated not to excite the wasps. Unaware they have been poisoned, the workers continue to feed the larvae and, in turn, the larvae feed the workers and queen with excretions. Within 12-36 hours the colony is wiped out.
