FESTIVAL season is fast approaching and congratulations to May Queen elect Abbie Widdowson and Rose Queen elect Jessica Hill on their selection.

It is these occasions like Lymm May Queen and the Lymm Festival, which make our village unique and I would urge all residents to support as many events as possible.

With it also being the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and the Olympics this year it makes it even more extra special and as I have previously mentioned I am looking forward to seeing our village bedecked in red white and blue.

The amount of work put in by various volunteers deserves as much support as possible and I would hope to see the streets lined for the annual May Queen procession.

Meanwhile election time is just around the corner with elections for the parish and borough, taking place on May 3.

Personally I have always felt that party politics should never be an issue at a local level – it should be a case of everyone working together for the good of Lymm and putting any political differences to one side.

Whatever your political beliefs, I would urge you to use your vote wisely and vote for the person you feel best able to represent your area.

But most importantly use your right to vote and make sure those who are elected are community minded people with the people of Lymm close to their hearts.

A full list of results will be published in next month's edition with full coverage of all the local elections on our sister publication's website www.warrington-worldwide.co.uk

Sporting scarecrows wanted for O-Lymm-pics!

ORGANISERS of the annual Lymm festival are "calling all scarecrow makers, past, present and future" - to make this year's Scarecrow Competition this year the best ever!

Being the "O-Lymm-pic year" they are 'Going for Gold' and challenging all the families, schools and businesses of Lymm to create a scarecrow demonstrating an O-Lymm-pic Sport.

They are suggesting people should choose a famous celebrity or any character from television, films or books and show them taking part in a sporting activity.

Organisers are also appealing to the shops in the village to help create a really good team of sporty scarecrows in the village centre for the Food Fest on June 28

The Scarecrow Competition was launched in 2004 and there have seen some absolutely superb scarecrows around the village

If there are any old scarecrows from previous years hibernating in sheds or attics - why not dust them down and they could join the May Queen procession this summer and then give them a quick make-over as a sporty scarecrow for this year's model!

Entry forms and information about the competition, trail guide and quiz will be available on www.lymmfestival.org.uk and around the village from the beginning of May. Registration forms with the £5 entry fee can be handed in at The Coffee House on Eagle Brow.

The Lymm Festival Committee are also looking for more volunteers to help run main events. This year we are looking to put on more events which appeal to families which include a fun run and a music festival. The festival runs from Thursday 28 June to Sunday 8 July. Email Paul at volunteer@lymmfestival.org.uk with your contact details.

Red, white and blue

ROAD signs and hanging baskets at Lymm are to be planted with red, white and blue flowers this summer.

The Parish Council has agreed to accept a quotation of £2,826 for summer and winter planting in Lymm in 2012-2013.

Rotary raise over £10,000 for Christie Hospital

LYMM Rotary Club have donated more than £10,000 to the Christie Hospital, following the latest donation of £1,000, presented by immediate Past President Neville Davies.

The money was presented to Howard Newhall, a member of the Christie Charity, who was guest speaker at a recent meeting of Lymm Rotary Club.

He explained that the Charity raises money to fund projects, which are outside the scope of the NHS and last year they raised nearly £13 million.

This money helped to fund a number of different projects, including the new Patient Treatment centre, a £35 million unit housing the world's largest clinical trials unit, not to mention even bigger and better chemotherapy services. The differences these facilities will make to their patients' lives can never be under estimated.

At the end of his talk Mr Newhall, was presented with a £1,000 cheque by Past President, Neville Davies.

Thanking the club, whose magnificent contributions now stand at over £10,000, Mr Newhall said: "We couldn't do this work without the fantastic support of people across the north west and around the UK, and clubs such as Lymm Rotary Club."

New president for Probus

NEW president of Lymm Dingle Probus Club is Roger Anderton.

He was installed at the club's 26th annual luncheon at the Lymm Hotel, receiving his chain of office from retiring president Keith Ridler.

Roger and his wife, Sue, have lived in Lymm for more than 40 years and are both keen members of Lymm Golf Club, as well as a number of other organisations.

Keith Ridler (left) hands over the chain of office.

Open Gardens event cancelled

THE Lymm Open Gardens event - which normally attracts about 400 visitors - will be missing from this year's Lymm Festival.

Organiser Clare Downing says unfortunately it has not been possible to attract enough volunteers to open their gardens.

She said: "We want to thank those who did volunteer this year but unfortunately there just weren't enough to make it viable."

Clare is hoping to attract enough volunteers to hold the event again next year.

Anyone interested in opening their garden for next year's festival contact Clare or Imogen on 01925 752618.

Community Ambassador award for Su

WELL known local campaigner Su Williams has become the first Lymm resident to win one of the Mayor of Warrington's Community Ambassador Awards.

The awards are designed to recognise local heroes who have made an excellent contribution to their local community.

Su was commended particularly for her work in setting up and helping to run the Lymm Junior Youth Club and also for her annual Art in the Garden exhibition which has become a core part of each year's festival and has provided opportunities for local artists from a wide range of backgrounds. The award goes on to recognise her involvement in many other local community groups.

Su was actually away on holiday when the news came through so was unable to attend the ceremony at Walton Hall.

"The news came as a complete surprise and I felt awful that we weren't even in the community when the announcement was made!", said Su. "I am very honoured to be recognised in this way especially as I am only doing what I enjoy so much - being part of such a vibrant and positive community and working with others who give so much of their time and energy".

Four-cornered fight for borough seat

THERE will be a four-cornered fight for the Lymm ward in the Warrington Borough Council elections on May 3. Long-serving Conservative councillor Sheila Woodyatt is defending her seat against Graham Gowland, Liberal Democrat, Su Williams, Labour and James Ashington, UK Independence Party.

A total of 28 candidates are seeking seats on Lymm Parish Council in the local elections on the same day.

And with only 12 seats on the council, it promises to be a battle royal between the Liberal Democrats and Conservatives.

The line-up is as follows: Booths Hill ward: Bob Barr (Lib Dem), Kim Buckley (Lib Dem), Graham Gowland (Lib Dem); Kathryn Buckley (Cons), David Openshaw (Cons) Harish Sharma (Cons); Christine Zastaway (Lab).

MP opens new restaurant

LOCAL MP David Mowat was guest of honour at a private launch party to officially open Marco Marco's authentic and innovative Italian restaurant in the former Farmer's Arms pub in Lymm.

It follows on from Marco Marco's acclaimed first venture in Northwich, three years ago, bringing a new Italian restaurant, pizzeria and bar to Lymm, offering the finest locally sourced ingredients to create a tempting and authentic Italian dining experience.

Marco Marco has sympathetically restored the former Farmers Arms, retaining the natural charm of the 300-year-old former hostelry while adding a bright, fresh twist. The new look celebrates the dining room's sense of occasion and history with its sumptuous leather chairs and elegant Italian inlaid tables. By night, it positively sparkles as candles and candelabras are lit.

The bar remains a central feature, servicing cocktails, champagnes by the glass and Italian beers such as Peroni and Moretti, alongside Amstel, John Smith's, cask ales and the executive cider Symonds.

An enticing wine list has been hand-selected by Berkmann Wine Cellars, the UK's leading independent wine supplier and voted Great Value Wine Merchant of the Year 2011 in the prestigious Sommelier Wine Awards. It includes delightful examples from lesser-known regions, including Calabria, Lombardia and Emilia Romagna, as well as from fine vineyards from across Europe, offering something to suit everyone's palate, mood and budget.

The dining areas have been opened up and converted into an all-day eatery with an eclectic and creative Italian fusion menu, combining simple fresh Italian dishes with a quirky twist, with mainly locally sourced, organic ingredients of the highest quality.

Lymm's £7 million fuel bill

LYMM spends around £7 million a year on gas and electricity - but there is potential to save more than £750,000.

This has been revealed by Low Carbon Lymm's Local Energy Assessment Fund (LEAF) project.

The results were presented to an invited audience at the Youth and Community Centre opened by Warrington South MP David Mowat.

Colourful maps of the different areas of Lymm were on display showing house types and ages, with examples of potential energy and carbon savings for typical properties.

Information and advice on how to achieve energy savings was provided at the event.

Low Carbon Lymm spokesman Richard Pearce said Lymm had the potential to save more than £750,000 a year on gas and electricity in homes through cost-effective measures such as insulation, boiler replacement, heating controls and energy efficient lighting.

More savings could be achieved through a wide range of "no and low cost" actions such as turning heating thermostats down by 1°C, switching off appliances rather than leaving them on standby and buying energy efficient appliances.

Residents who attended said they were impressed at the amount of work that had gone into the project and more than 80 per cent said they had been inspired to make changes in their use of energy in the home as a result of the event.

A full report on the LEAF project will be produced soon and in the meantime Low Carbon Lymm will be working on an action plan to realise the potential energy and cost savings through targeted campaigns on the high priority measures.

Traffic calming cuts speeding

TRAFFIC calming measures introduced on the A56 Higher Lane, Lymm, at its junction with Rectory Lane, have reduced the number of vehicles exceeding the speed limit by about 16 per cent.

This has been revealed by a comparison of traffic counts carried out before and after the work was carried out.

Members of the Higher Lane Action Group, which has been campaigning for speed limits on the A56 to be observed for two years, are delighted with the outcome.

They say the changes have made it easier to exit Rectory Lane, provided a more accessible bus stop and also a safer point to cross the A56 to St Mary's Church.

However, the news is not all good. Just down the road, near the entrance to The Dingle, where Higher Lane has been resurfaced, the improved road surface has resulted in an increase in the number of vehicles exceeding the speed limit.

Some 70-80 per cent of vehicles exceed the limit by a significant amount. During the working day about 15 vehicles an hour travel passed in each direction at 40 mph or more.

Police have been informed about the problem and say they will do their best to enforce the limit. Many of the offenders are thought to be local people.

During one enforcement operation, police caught 40 vehicles exceeding the limit - 14 of which were Lymm residents.

Higher Lane Action Group

spokesman Chris Wakefield says dialogue in the community about effective traffic calming and the distress caused by inconsiderate drivers is likely to be more effective than police action in the long run.

The Action Group has asked Lymm Parish Council to press for more sensible traffic calming measures when the rest of the A56 in Lymm is resurfaced.

One measure the Action Group would like to see is the "naming and shaming" of local people caught exceeding the speed limit on the A56

Motoring

The electric car for everyday use

THE Vauxhall Ampera, European Car of the Year 2012, will be the first electric vehicle suitable for everyday use.

This is GM's bold claim for a car which they say is not a hybrid and offers drivers all the benefits of electric driving without any of the range anxiety normally associated with electric vehicles.

Electricity powers the wheels of the Ampera at all times, with a 16kWh lithium-ion battery pack feeding an advanced 150PS electric drive unit, delivering between 25-50 miles of battery-powered electric drive and zero tailpipe emissions. What sets the car apart from other electric vehicles is its range extender, which boosts the car's range by up to 310 miles.

A small 1.4-litre petrol-fuelled engine/generator runs at optimum efficiency, generating enough electricity to power the electric motor (but not the wheels) and operates seamlessly as part of the Ampera's powertrain. The results are a total driving range of up to 360 miles - equivalent to 235.4mpg and combined tailpipe emissions of just 27g/km.

The car costs around £1 to fully charge. It's a four seater, has a top speed of 100mph and accelerates from 0-60mph in just 8.7 seconds. Prices start from £29,995, inclusive of the government's plug-in car grant

Club's ultimate Jubilee 'street party'

IT could be the ultimate Diamond Jubilee street party, with a guest list including Coronation Street and Hollyoaks stars, entertainment by former boy band singer Antony Costa and food prepared by a Michelin starred chef.

All in the idyllic, rural surroundings of Lymm Oughtrington Park Cricket Club's picturesque ground.

It's all part of the club's family fun day to raise money for Help the Heroes, to be held on Sunday June 3.

There will be a charity Twenty20 cricket match between a team of TV and sporting celebrities and a Lymm Oughtrington Park XI, with former Blue singer Antony Costa performing some of his best known hits during the interval.

Children's entertainments will include a bouncy castle and face painting and radio station City FM will be hosting a road show.

A curtain raiser will be a Kwik Cricket tournament involving Lymm's three primary schools and a club junior team and the day will also incorporate the official opening of the club's new practice facility by Warrington South MP David Mowat and local councillor Sheila Woodyatt.

The club is setting aside a "street party zone" for people who would like to avoid the hassle of organising their own parties.

Club events manager Andrew Kershaw said: "When we started telling people about the day, a number pointed out they might be organising their own street parties."

"So we decided to set aside an area where street parties could be held. People can either bring their own picnics or order a hamper prepared by celebrity chef Aiden Byrne."

"Of course, there will also be food and drink on sale, including a barbecue."

"The whole day is intended to be family entertainment - nobody will be taking the cricket too seriously."

A charity auction will offer a number of "money can't buy" prizes, including a morning's cooking tuition with Aiden Byrne, a visit to the set of TV's "Shameless" during filming, corporate tickets for Manchester United, Lancashire Cricket Club and others and an all-expenses paid "date" with former Miss British Isles Natalie Pike.

Tickets will be available at outlets in Lymm prior to the event but can also be purchased at the gate and corporate packages will also be available.

Rotary to the rescue

THE Rotary Club of Lymm has come to the rescue of a family in the Philippines who lost their home and all their possessions in a tropical storm.

The club made a £590 donation to ShelterBox immediately providing the family with humanitarian aid in the form of shelter, warmth and dignity.

Every year 35 million people are displaced or made homeless by disasters. Rotary President John Beard said: "We've all seen on our TV newsreel pictures of families sheltering under plastic sheeting or cramped in classrooms with only a handful of possessions."

"ShelterBox is a registered charity and a global Rotary Club project which responds instantly to disasters all around the world."

He explained how the box itself can be used for many functions from a food or water container, to a baby's cot. It contains a disaster relief tent for up to 10 people which will withstand extreme temperatures, intense UV light, high winds and heavy rainfalls. It is partitioned to allow families to divide the space in a way that suits them best. Also, there are fleece blankets, insulating ground sheets, tools, and a wood or multi-fuel burning stove, cooking utensils, bowls and mugs. There are even small gifts for the children - drawing books crayons and pens. When a child loses all their possessions these simple items become their treasures. A ShelterBox contains all the vital tools necessary for family to start rebuilding their lives.

Rotary International and ShelterBox have just signed a project partner agreement that will allow the two organisations to collaborate more closely to provide relief and temporary shelter to the survivors of disasters.

Lymm Rotary is keen to hear from men and women who would like to use their experience for the benefit of others in their international, national and community projects. Please telephone John Beard (01925) 758398 for more information.
