LATE night opening for Christmas shopping has been tried before in Lymm village and it is fair to say for many of those taking part it proved less than spectacular!

To their credit the newly energised Lymm Traders Association are keen to give it another go and are appealing to businesses in the village to open late on the last three Thursdays before Christmas.

They are also planning to lay on appropriate entertainment in the village centre as an added attraction to help compete with late night shopping elsewhere.

This is a great opportunity for local residents who have never ventured into the village centre to experience its unique character and show their support to the local business community, which has suffered like many other places during the economic down turn.

So if you are looking to do something a little different pop down into the village centre and check out what it has got to offer - and in the build up to Christmas I am sure you will find it that little bit extra special.

Meanwhile Sunday shopping is also starting to prove to be very popular, with several businesses now saying it is one of their busiest days of the week!

So if you are reading this editorial and have never been into the village centre there has never been a better time to support your local traders.

Also don't forget to put Saturday December 10 in your diaries for the annual Lymm Dickensian Festival which is always a great start to the festive period.

Good luck to new organiser Peter Powell and his team and I would also like to say a big thank you to the outgoing Mike Evans and his team for helping run the event for the past six years and providing a windfall for the various good causes featured elsewhere in this edition.

Dental care with Jill Cooper BDS DPDS

...something to smile about

Enhance your looks, refresh your complexion, and delay those signs of aging!

By Dr Soughol Mahmoudzadeh BDS (Dentist and Aesthetic Practitioner)

I have worked in general practice in Manchester for 6 years and joined Dental Care with Jill Cooper in April this year. Since joining the team I have thoroughly enjoyed my time at the practice and in Lymm. The practice offers a high level of patient care in a very friendly and caring environment. We strongly believe in prevention of dental diseases and have a strong commitment to this.

Since I qualified as a dentist from Manchester University in 2005 I have been very keen to continue my post-graduate education and have completed a number of courses in advanced restorative dentistry. This allows me to offer the highest standard of care in common dental procedures such as fillings, crowns and bridges.

I have a particular interest in cosmetic dentistry including smile make-overs, veneers and tooth-whitening.

This led to my advancement in the field of facial aesthetics and skin rejuvenation. I now have several years experience in facial aesthetics, having carried out hundreds of treatments on patients across the North-West. I have worked closely with some leading names in the aesthetic field and have also trained further in advanced cosmetic procedures.

My aim is to assess every patient as an individual, discuss your concerns, and provide treatment tailored to meet your specific needs. This way you are guaranteed to achieve the results you desire.

Treatment is usually quick, with very little pain, and fantastic results which will leave you looking fresh and more youthful.

As we age, our skin loses collagen and elastin, causing a reduction in hydration, volume and elasticity of the skin. Environmental factors such as over-exposure to the sun, and lifestyle factors such as smoking and high alcohol consumption, can all contribute to premature aging of the skin. As a result the skin loses volume, creating lines and wrinkles.

At Dental Care with Jill Cooper, we offer a range of cosmetic treatments to revitalise your skin and enhance your natural beauty, helping you to look and feel younger. In younger skin, the emphasis is on prevention of the signs of aging and enhancing natural beauty. In older or prematurely aged skin, treatments are aimed at rejuvenating and revitalising the skin, reducing the appearance of existing lines and wrinkles.

The range of treatments offered include anti-wrinkle (muscle-relaxing) injections, dermal fillers (Juvederm), lip enhancements and cheek volumisation.

The areas of the face which we commonly treat with muscle-relaxing injections, dermal fillers, or a combination of the two are:

- Frown lines
- Forehead / (worry) lines
- Crows feet (around the eyes)
- Smokers lines (around the lips)
- Nasolabials (nose-to-mouth lines)
- Jowls
- Cheek volumisation
- Lip enhancement and contouring
- Other fine lines and creases

We ensure that every patient receives the highest level of care and attention by a friendly and caring team. Call Dental Care with Jill Cooper on 01925 758616 to book your FREE cosmetic consultation.

Lymm Rugby panto - no 'Flash' in the pan!

LYMM Rugby Club's world famous annual adult panto celebrates 25 glorious years this year and is proving to be as popular as ever, with ticket sales of 'Flash Gordon' moving very quickly.

In that time the show has been instrumental in initially helping the Club survive and now for fundraising for the 'Lymm Grass Roots Sports Appeal'. As a community-based club Lymm RFC relies on the membership, donations and volunteers to fulfill ambitions to develop a sporting centre of excellence.

However, long-term members have always been keen to show the community of Lymm, and new members, just how much enjoyment it is to be had in the thriving clubhouse, which is also home to rugby league, hockey, squash and many junior rugby teams.

'The Lymm Panto, we hope, gives everyone an insight into the fun we have here, and what a great place Lymm Rugby Club is,' said Simon Plumb, panto writer, producer and former player. 'Twenty five years seems a long time but when we have spent so much of our time laughing, and making our audiences laugh, the time has just flown by.'

'Next year we need some younger members, male and female, to join the cast. One or two older performers are beginning to show a few laughter lines, shall we say, and make-up can only hide so much. With an injection of 'fresh meat', I think we can all look forward to the next 25 years of the Lymm Panto!

The eight performances will run from December 1-4 and December 8-11. Tickets, at £16 each, go on open sale to the general public on 29/10/11 and are available from the Panto Ticket Hotline 07789 265447 or by emailing ctcartwright@talktalk.net

Lymm family strike the right note

If you have heard any live music in Lymm in the last few months then chances are you have come across the Healey / Monks family.

Husband and wife team Michael and Susan moved to the village just a year ago and have thrown themselves enthusiastically into the musical life of the village.

When he isn't busy as a solo wedding sax player Michael has performed at a number of local events including the opening of the Angela Fox exhibition at Edgar's Art during the Lymm Festival. He and his wife Susan - who used to lead the highly regarded Amicus choral group in Warrington - also joined local singer / musician Alan Williams as part of the "Fire and Rain" concert that packed the Statham Lodge during the festival.

Daughter Helen - who lives on Star Lane combines a busy career as a singing teacher with regular appearances at the Venue open mic on Tuesday where she also introduces a number of her own students.

Now not to be outdone, a third generation, Helen's son 15 year old Josh Monks, recently won Lymm High's young musician of the year with a tremendous performance of the piano music of Villa Lobos.

Michael - an ex head of music at Woolston High School - said: "We have always made music together. It gives us pleasure and we hope that we can share that pleasure too."

That was obvious when Michael and Helen gave an impromptu concert at the Senior Social at The Lymm Youth and Community Centre that received an enthusiastic response.

Their appearance with Alan at The Statham Lodge has led to the group being snapped up to perform at the prestigious Cinnamon Club in Bowdon on Friday October 28th (www.thecinnamonclub.net) for an evening of American song that will include the music of Paul Simon and James Taylor.

The Healey / Monks along with Alan are also already scheduled for a concert at the United Reformed Church in the Spring of next year as part of their new regular music series.

B Fest 'best one ever!'

THE annual B Fest at the Jolly Thresher proved to be another sell out success helping raise nearly £4,000 for various charities and good causes.

One of the organisers Jane Holmes said: "Everyone really enjoyed the great atmosphere and fantastic music. The talent on show was brilliant."

"Thanks must go to all the bands who donated their skills and talents voluntarily on the day in return for food and drink!

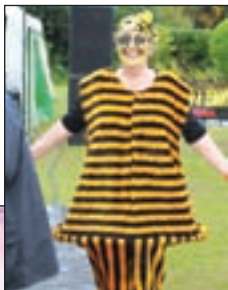

"Also thanks to our audience who really enjoyed the day 'Best one ever!' was heard around the place."

She also paid tribute to the sponsors and volunteers on the day.

The money raised will be donated to Myeloma Blood Cancer Research, Diabetes Research, Guillain Barré Syndrome Research in memory of Candice Roberts and St Peter's Church, Oughtrington.

If anyone would like to offer sponsorship for next year or can help with the infrastructure of the event please email Jane Holmes at bfestival5@yahoo.co.uk

Produce show produces crop of winners!

OUGHTRINGTON Community Orchard's third annual produce show produced another crop of winners.

Held at Oughtrington Community Centre, this year there was the added enticement of an apple press which brought in locals with their apples and pears to juice.

The longest bean and five beans sections were the best contested categories along with the victoria sponge category won by Robert Reid, Mary Bullimore and Sally Bircham respectively.

Everyone enjoyed the winning entry for the "most amusing vegetable" category from Lorraine Wright!

Congratulations to all winners, see www.oughtrington.co.uk/orchard for a full list.

Next year the group plan to have a wild card category so that entrants can bring in whatever looks good in their garden.

Helping

Any one interested in getting involved in helping make next year's show a success, please get in touch by emailing orchard@oughtrington.co.uk.

Alternatively if you enjoy local produce and homemade cakes why not register with localfoodinlymm.wordpress.com to find out about local and seasonal food around Lymm.

Pudding club's tasty evening

MEMBERS of the Lymm Pudding Club are holding a Christmas-themed "pudding evening" at the Village Hall, on Pepper Street, on Friday, December 2 from 7.30pm.

There will be a selection of hot and cold, mouth-watering home-made puddings to sample.

Visitors will be able to vote for their favourite pub and glasses will be available for people who take their own tippie. Tea and coffee will also be served.

The evening is in aid of St Mary's Church, Lymm.

More "Pudding Club" events are planned in the near future - each with a seasonal theme.

Details are available from Sue Walton on 01925 756520, Jo Young on 01925 759919 or Vanessa Lees on 01925 757471.

Dickensian windfall

THIS year's Dickensian Festival is receiving a £2,000 windfall from the retiring Dickensian Committee, with a further £7,000 being distributed to local good causes and charitable organisations in the village.

Former Dickensian Chairman Mike Evans said the constitution of the previous organising committee on being dissolved, was for all funds to be distributed to local good causes.

It had been decided to make donations to organisations which had actively been involved and supportive of Dickensian during the past six years.

Those set to benefit are: 4th and 5th Lymm Scouts, St Mary's, Oughtrington, Statham Little Foxes and the Village Hall playgroups, Cotebrook, and the PTA's at Cherry Tree, Ravenbank, Oughtrington and Little Bollington.

Mike said he would like to hear from the treasurers of each organisation so he can forward cheques.

He can be contacted on 755765.

This year's event is being co-ordinated by local councillor and Town Crier Peter Powell.

Coffee morning charity can bank on SEXTONS Village Bakery, Lymm in conjunction with Barclays Bank took part in the Macmillan Cancer Support World's Largest Coffee Morning.

Sextons offered free coffee and tea for a donation to Macmillan and Barclays Bank doubled the donation. As a result, a total of £1,694 was raised.

Meanwhile, local residents Ann Wilson and Anne Turner held a coffee morning at Ann's home and raised more than £1,000 for the charity. A coffee morning charity can bank on!

High school seeks new governor

LYMM High School is looking for someone from the community to join its governing body.

Community governors are there to represent local interests, and may be involved in business, the voluntary sector, or other activities locally.

They are usually people who do not already have a link with the school as a parent.

More information about what being a governor entails is on the school website at www.lymmhs.co.uk and potential applicants are welcome to contact the chairman of governors, Kieran Walshe, for an informal discussion on 01925 759687. Application forms are available from the clerk to the governors, Sue McGuinness (phone 01925 750707, email sch_lymm_head@warrington.gov.uk).

Applications should be received by Friday November 18.

History of postage stamps

AFTER the main business of the evening and notices plus reports from the various group activities, members of Lymm WI enjoyed a talk by Peter Kirk on the history of the British postage stamp.

This was a very informative and interesting event to actually see the Penny Black and Two Penny blue - our first stamps, introduced in 1840.

A fund raiser "soup-a-day" was very successful with lots of homemade soups and homemade apple pies and cream. It was a cold wet day - just right for hot soup and pie.

Reverse Sun Damage and Rejuvenate Your Skin...

50% OFF an introductory ENDERMOLIFT treatment with this ad
(Course of treatments required for the best result)

Advanced cutting edge technology used at Laserina Clinic will restore your skin to its younger, fresher and smoother complexion. IPL facial rejuvenation uses new advanced light technology to re-model collagen, reduce large pores, brighten and tighten skin, even tone and treat the consequences of sun damage such as red vessels and brown/age spots. Endermolift, a non-surgical facelift, doesn't use electrical currents, dermabrasion or injections and is a completely natural procedure that gives the face a mechanical 'work-out' improving the skin elasticity and tone. It's especially good for firming up and lifting specific zones.

Festival feedback

THE Lymm Festival team has welcomed feedback from the public on this year's event with plans now well in hand for next year's extravaganza.

Survey forms were sent out by email to a range of people who had attended events. The second part of the feedback survey to be carried out this autumn will be focussed on those people who did not attend any events during the Festival.

New Director Jacquie Davies said, "We are very pleased with the response and I would like to thank everyone who took time to answer the questions. You told us what you liked, what you didn't like so much and gave us some really interesting ideas for next year. We want to be very open about the feedback and will be publishing the results on our website when we have completed some more analysis."

Most people thought the eleven-day length of the Festival was right and were happy with the number of events in the programme. As a result next year's event will run from Thursday June 28 to Sunday July 8.

As an incentive to complete the survey form, a prize of six bottles of wine was donated by committee members.

Beccy dives back to where it all started

BECCY Redford has just returned to live and work in Lymm after four years working overseas as a scuba diving instructor.

It's a case of going back where she started, as Beccy originally learned to scuba dive in the pool at Lymm Leisure Centre.

She became so taken with the sport and the fascination of the world underwater that she gave up her job to travel and devote herself full time to diving. Initially she went to Utila in Honduras where she qualified as a scuba diving instructor and then spent nine months there working as an instructor.

Following this she moved on to Umkomaas, just outside Durban, South Africa, where she worked for three years, progressing from being a scuba diving instructor to be manager of a dive centre and dive lodge.

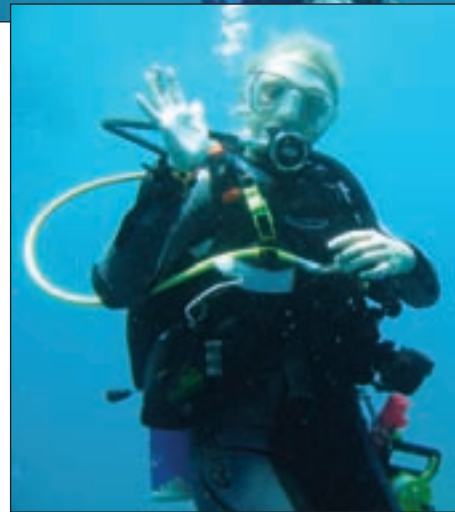

Most of the diving there was on the Aliwal Shoals which are renowned as one of the best places in the world to go diving with sharks.

During her time in Umkomaas, Beccy saw eight different species of shark including one memorable dive where she saw about 50 Oceanic Blacktip sharks, seven Tiger sharks and a Bull shark - all potentially dangerous but safe if the instructions from the local experienced dive guides are followed closely.

Eventually the pull of family back in England was too much for her and she has returned to the UK where she is now working where it all started.

Fun run in the sun!

MORE than 100 runners aged between 3-14 took part in the sixth annual Oughtrington Community Centre Children's Fun Run in Spud Wood which was blessed with glorious sunshine.

Event organisers Mandy Lorton and Caroline Thomas were delighted with the turn-out for this popular local event.

"Wolfie" from Warrington Wolves came along to join in the Fun and led a warm-up before the race with Andy Smith.

The younger runners up to 10 then completed a one mile circuit around the wood, with the older runners completing a two mile course.

All runners received a medal at the finish to mark their achievement, as well as water and a chocolate bar kindly donated by Heatley Mere Co-op.

The run was followed by a BBQ, refreshments, stalls and games on the community centre field.

Local children Megan and Ellen Thomas, Beth and Anna Simms and Ellen Gordon ran a very successful cake stall and 1st Oughtrington Scouts and Oughtrington Pre-school ran stall and games, making it a real community event.

Thanks go to the Woodland Trust for allowing the use of Spud Wood and to event sponsors: Oasis the Dental People, Eagle Brow, Lymm, Mark Briggs at Linear Art Studios, Stage Lane, Lymm, Alan Gibson at AG Accounting and Administration Services and Heatley Mere Co-op.

So far the event has raised £600 which will go towards much needed refurbishment at the Community Centre.

Any outstanding sponsor money should be returned to Mandy Lorton, 35 Sandy Lane, Lymm WA13 9HP as soon as possible

Ethan and Neal are 'young ambassadors'

TWO outstanding young people were honoured at a prestigious ceremony at Lymm Rugby Club.

The pair - Ethan Waite and Neal Lewellyn - won the Lymm and District Lions Club Young Ambassador Awards.

They gained the award and had the chance to meet special guest Thomas Kelly, who has recently been called to the England Judo Squad, after gaining success in national and international competitions.

Ethan, a former pupil of Ravenbank Primary School, has recently started at Lymm High School.

Fantastic

His citation from Ravenbank said: "He continually proved himself to be a fantastic ambassador for our school community and made an outstanding contribution to the life of the school by selflessly working to help others in a number of areas."

He assisted with ICT at school including fixing problems and updating web pages. Staff say his understanding of technical issues was "beyond his years."

He was also been secretary to the School Council and set up a Chess Club which he ran on his own during lunch breaks to encourage younger children to learn the game and develop their skills.

The school says Ethan always "had a smile on his face" and was always willing to help others. He also managed to achieve outstanding exam results.

Lymm RFC put forward the citation for Neal, 11. The club says he has played rugby at Lymm since being seven.

Contender

The club said: "He is undoubtedly a talented rugby player, but there is much more to Neal...a strong contender with a heart of gold."

"Neal started playing Rugby in Lymm in the second team (coached by Mike Daly) at U8's in the 2006/7 season. It was obvious he was a good all round sportsman and took to the game immediately."

He soon progressed to the first team (coached by Nick Hughes) and over the years has shown ability to play any position with equal commitment/skill.

He has achieved great success and has helped train younger players.

The club say he has turned into a "great young person" and since the end of the end of the 2010/11 season he has turned up every Saturday and Sunday to help Mike train the 2011/12 U9's.

Stella Swinburne, McCarthy & Stone retirement apartment owner.

My story?

“Time and money. Two things I wish I had more of before I moved and now I have both

I lived in a three bedroom bungalow before I bought my apartment but it's amazing how the little jobs that need doing add up. I was forever forking out for someone to fix this or that. Now I don't have to worry about a thing. I reckon I'm at least £50 a month better off since moving. No gas bills as everything is electric. Just one service charge means no separate water rates, no individual window cleaner or gardener to pay for. And as for external maintenance that's all included. Even my personal alarm I used to carry with me is redundant thanks to the 24-hour emergency call system. Saving money has also given me more time to enjoy myself and that's worth more to me than anything else.

RETIREMENT LIVING

Sarah looks forward to World Cup

LYMM'S hockey international, Sarah Impey is looking for sponsorship if she plays in the Masters World Cup in London next year.

Sarah, who achieved her ambition of representing her country this year after 34 years of playing hockey, hopes to be playing in the competition which will be treated as a "test" for the artificial grass pitches to be used for the Olympic hockey games.

Sponsorship

Teams from all over the world will be taking part and Sarah would welcome sponsorship towards her expenses.

She has just completed her first season of internationals, playing for the England Over 45s team.

She played against Wales at Cardiff, scoring the only goal in a 1-0 victory and against Ireland, when she played a key role in a 3-0 victory.

Later she played twice for the England Lionesses - a mixed team of Over 45s and Over 50s - against Ireland. But the Irish fielded an Over 40s team and "youth" won the day, with the Lionesses losing 1-0 and 2-1.

Sarah said: "I would like to thank my sponsors, John and Kerry, directors of J&K Pipelines Ltd., of Lymm and Eddie O'Neill, director of Electrical and Date Solutions Ltd, of Altrincham."

Normally, Sarah plays for Timperley 2nd team in the Cheshire Women's League.

Anyone who would like to sponsor her should call 0781 190 7750.

Donations fund new exercise bike

RESIDENTS at a Lymm care home can now take regular exercise indoors thanks to two generous donations.

The family of former resident Ian Tims and the Warburton Soulers donated a total of £2,500 to help purchase a new exercise bike for the benefit of residents at Cotebrook Home.

Doorstep scam warning

RESIDENTS of Lymm have been warned of a possible doorstep scam.

A man has been visiting homes in the village and offering free draw tickets with prizes of a Nissan Micra car or £6,000 in cash.

He assures householders he is not selling anything but asks for a name and telephone number so he can inform them in the event of them winning.

But later a salesman either calls or visits with a hard-sell technique, trying to sell various household products.

In some cases it has taken householders up to three hours to get rid of the pushy salesman.

Motoring

Sporty - but 'sensible'

EARLIER this year, the 100,000th Audi A1 rolled off the assembly line - a considerable achievement for a model only introduced in the middle of last year. The A1 is Audi's most compact model at 3.95 metres (just under 13ft) in length but it packs a lot into the space and with its powerful engines and agile chassis is one of the sportiest cars in its sector. Yet, at the same time, among a clutch of awards it has won are two for "the most sensible car."

There's a choice of six four-cylinder engines, three TFSI engines and three TDI units. All impress with exemplary fuel economy, ranging from 39.87 to 61.90mpg.

Out of the blue – a new colour for a new car!

BLUE is the colour most drivers would choose for their car if they had a choice, closely followed by silver and black, according to a poll of nearly 16,000 AA members.

Brown, gold and yellow were the least popular colours – but these days, quite a few drivers end up with a colour that would not have been their first choice anyway.

Perhaps surprisingly, younger drivers seem to have a preference for black. One in three 18-34 year olds would pick a black car if they had a choice but only one in six actually has a black car.

Just 13 per cent of 18-34 year olds would pick a silver car, yet 22 per cent have one.

Overall, a desire for silver can be satisfied, with 22 per cent of the entire sample wanting a silver car and 25 per cent having one. The same goes for red, blue and white, although the 208 brown car owners (1 per cent) must be the most frustrated as almost no-one wants one (0.27 per cent).

Silver is the favourite of the grey-haired driver, being the number one choice of AA members aged 55-64 (23 per cent) and 65 and over (30 per cent). It is a desire they satisfy, with the highest proportion of 55-64 year olds having one (25 per cent) and also those aged 65 or more (31 per cent).

One of the attractions of silver is the feeling that it is by far the easiest to keep clean. Some 27 per cent of survey respondents believe it is the colour that shows dirt the least. Gold, yellow, green and white cars were voted the least easy to keep clean.

When it comes to selling a car, AA members consider that there are only two clear contenders for most saleable colours: silver (28 per cent) and black (15 per cent). Once again, the youngest drivers favour black (21 per cent) but AA members aged 25 or more increasingly bet on silver to sell first.

AA president Edmund King said: "Brighter coloured cars, which have been popular in the past when the economy was more buoyant, seem to have slipped way down the league. The results show a discrepancy between desired colour of choice and actual colour of car as often the owner may not have a choice.

"For younger drivers that hanker after black cars but end up with lighter-coloured ones, there is a silver lining in that if they hang on to them they will grow to prefer them.

"Whilst blue was the colour more drivers wanted to own, silver clearly tops the league when it comes to the car colour most likely to sell quickly, most fashionable and easiest to keep clean."

Lymm disappointed despite progress

It is a measure of Lymm's progress over the last two years that although they climbed to joint third in National League 3 North, following four wins against Altrincham Kersal, Beverley and Waterloo and West Hartlepool, the players and coaching staff are somewhat disappointed in their overall performances.

They responded well to losing their first two games of the season against Bradford & Bingley and Birkenhead Park, and have shown that they have the ability to compete with the best in the league. Assistant Coach and England legend Alex Bennett has led the way up-front, ably assisted by Cheshire player Adam Bray, Oli Higginson, Jake Ashall and Pete Allen.

Skipper Knowles has put in consistently good performances from full-back, but the backs have not fulfilled the try-scoring potential they showed last season.

However, It will not be until they play against the likes of Chester and on heavier ground that anyone will be able to judge whether their highly commendable 7th place in the league last season was a fair reflection of the club's progress or not.

Five complete marathon

Janet Stanhope, Lee Hughes, Helen Johnson and Vic Begent.

FIVE members of Lymm Runners represented the village in the Chester Marathon.

The five - Lee Hughes, Richard Smith, Helen Johnson, Vic Begent and Janet Stanhope - finished the marathon in times ranging from three hours 34 minutes to four hours 50 minutes.

Lymm Runners captain Chris Lees said: "Everyone has been training hard for this race, using the club sessions and other local races such as the Warrington Half Marathon as a warm-up."

"The conditions were ideal for distance running and all should be very pleased with themselves, especially Helen, Richard and Janet for completing their first full marathon distance."

Lymm Runners is the village's only running club and meets outside the library every Tuesday and Thursday at 7pm and on Sundays at 8am.

In the 18 months since the club was set up it has become UKA affiliated and is part of the North West Cross Country League. Members have taken part in everything from 5ks to triathlons to ultra-marathons.

More details are available at <http://lymmrunners.org.uk>

Handicrafts at Lymm WI

PLUM jam and hand made greeting cards were on the trading table at a meeting of Lymm WI.

Members heard the handicraft group had restarted with a session on decoupage on greeting cards.

Future events discussed included a visit to Dunham Park with afternoon tea at the Lavender Tearooms and a fundraising Soup-a-day at Lymm Village Hall.

Speaker was Peter White, from Lever Brothers, who told members about laundry products, including new very sophisticated items.

There was lots of interaction with members and many received prizes. He told members about the different content and use of the various products and many went home with laundry tips.

Creating designer greetings cards

A WITTY and entertaining talk on creating designer greetings cards was enjoyed by Heatley WI.

Speaker Alice Dyson told how she took up making cards when she retired as a teacher. She told some amusing anecdotes from her time in schools.

Alice, who travels around Cheshire demonstrating her work, then showed members how she makes the beautiful cards for all occasions.

The meeting was opened by president Liz Wellbelove and secretary Anne Oakes, who welcomed six new visitors.

Future events discussed included a Carol Service in Chester on December 7, Christmas Lunch at Statham Lodge on December 8 and a WI group concert on December 14 at St Peter's Church, Oughtrington.

Business as usual

IT is business as usual for Allan and Geoff at Agden Park Motors who have been trading from the Park Garage at Agden Brown for 27 years.

Although Park Garage has closed for petrol sales, it is business as usual at Agden Park Motors, who offer a free local pick up and drop off service.

As well as servicing Agden Park Motors also do MOT testing and have a 5 star workshop for servicing and repairs.
